Putting Amazing Back Into Grace:

Putting Amazing Back into Grace Michael Horton, 2011-10-01 What does it mean to be saved by grace Now revised and updated this classic reminds readers of the Reformation's radical view of God and his saving grace the liberating yet humbling truth that we contribute nothing to our salvation It lays out the scriptural basis for this doctrine and its implications for a vibrant evangelical faith Horton's accessible treatment will inspire readers with a fresh amazement at God's grace Foreword by J I Packer Putting Amazing Back Into Grace Michael Horton, 2011-10 Leading Reformed voice offers a revised and updated edition of his landmark publication about the freeing message of saving grace Putting Amazing Back Into Grace Michael Horton, 2014-05-14 Leading Reformed voice offers a revised and updated edition of his landmark publication about the freeing message of saving grace DVD included Putting Amazing Back Into Grace Michael Scott Horton, 1991 Michael Horton calls us away from the trivial to the foundational from contemporary myopia to biblical clear sightedness He provides a fresh stimulating introduction to what we should mean when we say saved by grace This message with all its implications is what Christians today need more than anything else Putting Amazing Back Into Grace Michael Scott Horton, 1996-12-05 From Sin to Amazing Grace Patrick S. Cheng, 2012-03-01 Throughout the history of Christianity lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT or queer people have been condemned as unrepentant sinners who are in dire need of God's saving grace As a result of this condemnation LGBT people have been subjected to great spiritual emotional and physical abuse and violence This issue takes on a particular urgency in light of the ongoing harassment and bullying of LGBT young people by their classmates Cheng argues that people need to be liberated from the traditional legal model of thinking about sin and grace as a violation of divine and natural laws in which grace is understood as the strength to refrain from violating such laws Rather Cheng proposes a Christological model based upon the theologies of Irenaeus Bonaventure and Barth in which sin and grace are defined in terms of what God has done for us in Jesus Christ This book serves as a useful resource for all people who struggle to make sense of the traditional Christian doctrines of sin and grace in the context of the 21st century Participation and Covenant Dick Moes, 2024-03-13 In Participation and Covenant Contours of a Theodramatic Theology Moes develops a theological framework that has participation in the life of God in Christ through the Spirit as its integrative center In doing so he enters into conversation with covenant or federal theology particularly as it has been presented by Michael Horton in which the integrative center is the concept of the covenant He argues that God's fundamental relationship with humanity does not entail a covenant ontology a fundamentally legal and ethical relationship to God as we find in Horton's presentation but rather an ontology of participating in God's loving presence in Christ through the Holy Spirit For this relationship we were created and this participation is therefore natural to us Accordingly a theodramatic framework that incorporates a reframed understanding of divine human covenants and that has participation in the life of God in Christ by the Spirit as its integrative center is better able to give direction for clearly communicating the gospel in our secular culture and for properly shaping our Christian identity and practice in the face of the secularism that affects the church too than Horton's framework of covenant theology Manifesto of Christian Holiness J. R. Shepard, 2021-08-23 This Manifesto is about spiritual warfare it is about being Christian in the midst of an anti-Christian world It is about exposing not only the sins of those around you but exposing your own sins too It is about recognizing one's real enemy the devil and not treating others you don't agree with as enemies The Good Confession Daniel R. Hyde, 2007-01-01 Today too many Christians are followers of novelty religious fads and strange new doctrines unheard of in the history of the church On the contrary to be a Christian is to join the great cloud of witnesses Heb 12:1 through the ages confessing with the Body of Christ the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints Jude 3 This is what Paul called the good confession 1 Tim 6:12 This workbook will lead you in a study of what it means to be a Christian from the vantage point of the Bible the ancient Christian creeds and the Protestant confessions of the sixteenth century The Extent of the Atonement David L. Allen, 2016-06-01 The extent of Christ's atoning work on the cross is one of the most divisive issues in evangelical Christianity In The Extent of the Atonement A Historical and Critical Review David L. Allen makes a biblical historical theological and practical case for a universal atonement Through a comprehensive historical survey Allen contends that universal atonement has always been the majority view of Christians and that even among Calvinist theologians there is a considerable range of views Marshalling evidence from Scripture and history and critiquing arguments for a limited atonement Allen affirms that an unlimited atonement is the best understanding of Christ's saving work He concludes by showing that an unlimited atonement provides the best foundation for evangelism missions and preaching The Coming Evangelical Crisis John Harper Armstrong, 1996 A compelling and challenging book this is a valuable resource for pastors teachers leaders and anyone who is concerned about the effectiveness of the church in this generation In the Face of God Michael Scott Horton, 1996 Have modern believers grown too comfortable with God In response to the unbiblical mystical spirituality of our day Michael Horton calls for a return to the teaching of the Apostle Paul and the early church The result is a compelling picture of true spiritual intimacy with God Days of Blessing in Inland China, 1887 Days of blessing in inland China (compiled by M.
