The Terminal Classic in the Maya Lowlands Arthur Andrew Demarest, Prudence M. Rice, Don S. Rice, 2005 The Terminal Classic in the Maya Lowlands revisits one of the great problems in Mayan archaeology the apparent collapse of Classic Maya civilization from roughly A D 830 to 950 During this period the Maya abandoned their power centers in the southern lowlands and rather abruptly ceased the distinctive cultural practices that marked their apogee in the Classic period Archaeological fieldwork during the past three decades however has uncovered enormous regional variability in the ways the Maya experienced the shift from Classic to Postclassic society revealing a period of cultural change more complex than acknowledged by traditional models Featuring an impressive roster of scholars The Terminal Classic presents the most recent data and interpretations pertaining to this perplexing period of cultural transformation in the Maya lowlands Although the research reveals clear interregional patterns the contributors resist a single overarching explanation Rather this volume s diverse and nuanced interpretations provide a new more properly grounded beginning for continued debate on the nature of lowland Terminal Classic Maya civilization
