Personal Recollections of the Stage, Embracing Notices of Actors, Authors, and Auditors, During a Period of Forty Years, 1855 (Classic Reprint) William B. Wood, 2017-11-26 Excerpt from Personal Recollections of the Stage Embracing Notices of Actors Authors and Auditors During a Period of Forty Years 1855 Some years since at the moment when I believed myself on the point of relinquishing theatrical pursuits forever I made a promise to a friend since deceased to prepare the ground work of an authentic sketch of the progress of the Drama here since I became connected with it in 1798 together with such recollections as might prove of interest or amusement in that connection The design of my friend was himself to present it to the public for me in a finished and more literary form Very opposite certainly to my wishes events quite unexpected have combined to retain me in the profession until within a recent time and have deprived me of any good opportunity to fulfil this promise The death of the friend to whom I have alluded puts it out of my power now to employ for this record any hand but my own My 76th year reminds me that the night cometh and this with circumstances of weight with me will excuse the fact that I now finally appear before the public as my own unpretending annalist About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Women in the American Theatre Faye E. Dudden, 1994-01-01 Through a series of biographical sketches of female performers and managers Dudden provides a discussion of the conflicted messages conveyed by the early theatre about what it meant to be a woman It both showed women as sex objects and provided opportunities for careers

The Brief Career of Eliza Poe Gedde Smith, 1988

When the actress Eliza Poe mother of Edgar Allen Poe died at age 24 in Richmond Virginia she had played with every important theatrical company in the country Compared to actors today her career is truly extraordinary She played nearly 300 parts in plays by Shakespeare and Sheridan a long line of heroines in 18th century sentimental comedies comic operas farces and poetic tragedies whose titles are meaningless now though they contain brilliant language and canny theatricality requiring actors of discipline and skill to present successfully Eliza left no personal documents but available public documents relating to her professional life tell the vivid story of a gifted young actress serving her apprenticeship in the superior repertory system of late 18th and early 19th century America Eliza was a young artist who had established a national reputation with her co workers and the public just embarking on what would have been her most important work at the time of her tragically early death America's Longest Run Andrew Davis,2010 Traces the history of the Walnut Street Theatre in Philadelphia from its founding in 1809 Documents the productions and players at the theater and the difficulties it has faced from economic crises changing tastes and competition from new media Provided by publisher
