Perspectives On Africa A Reader In Culture History And Representation:

Perspectives on Africa Roy Richard Grinker, Stephen C. Lubkemann, Christopher B. Steiner, 2010-05-17 The second edition of Perspectives on Africa A Reader in Culture History and Representation is both an introduction to the cultures of Africa and a history of the interpretations of those cultures Key essays explore the major issues and debates through a combination of classic articles and the newest research in the field Explores the dynamic processes by and through which scholars have described and understood African history and culture Includes selections from anthropologists historians philosophers and critics who collectively reveal the interpenetration of ideas and concepts within and across disciplines regions and historical periods Offers a combined focus on ethnography and theory giving students the means to link theory with data and perspective with practice Newly revised and updated edition of this popular text with 14 brand new chapters and two new sections Conflict and Violent Transformations and Development Governance and Globalization

The Power of African Cultures Toyin Falola, 2003 An analysis of the ties between culture and every aspect of African life using Africa's past to explain present situations This book focuses on the modern cultures of Africa from the consequences of the imposition of Western rule to the current struggles to define national identities in the context of neo liberal economic policies and globalization The book argues that it is against the backdrop of foreign influences that Africa has defined for itself notions of identity and development African cultures have been evolving in response to change and in other ways solidly rooted in a shared past The book successfully deconstructs the last one hundred and fifty years of cultures that have been disrupted replaced and resurrected The Power of African Cultures challenges many preconceived notions such as male dominance and female submission the supposed unity of ethnic groups and contemporary Western stereotypes of Africans It also shows the dynamism of African cultures to adapt to foreign imposition even as colonial rule forced the adoption of foreign institutions and cultures African cultures appropriated these elements Traditions were reworked symbols redefined and the past situated in contemporary problems in order to accommodate the modern era Toyin Falola is a Fellow of the Nigerian Academy of Letters and Fellow of the Historical Society of Nigeria He is the recipient of the 2006 Cheikh Anta Diop Award for Exemplary Scholarship in African Studies and the 2008 Quintessence Award by the Africa Writers Endowment He holds an honorary doctorate from Monmouth University and he is University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin where he is also the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities His books include Nationalism and African Intellectuals and Violence in Nigeria both from the University of Rochester Press

Society, State, and Identity in African History Bahru Zewde, 2008 The Fourth Congress of the Association of African historians was held in Addis Ababa in May 2007 These 21 papers are a key selection of the papers presented there with an introduction by the distinguished historian Bahru Zewde Given the contemporary salience and the historical depth of the issue of identity the congress was devoted to that global phenomenon within Africa The papers explore and analyse the issue of identity in its diverse temporal settings from its pre colonial roots to its cotemporary manifestations The papers are divided into six parts Pre Colonial Identities Colonialism and Identity Conceptions of the Nation State and Identity Identity Based Conflicts Migration and Acculturation and Memory History and Identity The authors are scholars from Benin Botswana Cameroon the Democratic Republic of Congo Ethiopia Mali Nigeria Senegal South Africa and Zimbabwe Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University Executive Director of the Forum for Social Studies and Vice President of the Association of African Historians He was formerly Chairperson of the Department of History and Director of the Institute of Ethiopian Studies at Addis Ababa University Amongst his publication is A History of Modern Ethiopia 1855 1991 Das Mobiltelefon im

Alltagsleben des urbanen Kenia Michael Waltinger, 2019-01-29 Michael Waltinger beschreibt in dieser Medienethnografie die Mobiltelefonaneignung im urbanen Alltag einer Gemeinde in Eastlands Nairobi Kenia Besondere Berücksichtigung findet dabei die Verwobenheit des Alltagsmedienhandelns mit den soziostrukturellen Lebensbedingungen der Menschen um das Medienhandeln auf Subjektebene in die gesellschaftlichen Strukturen auf Makroebene zu stellen Während das Mobiltelefonhandeln vielfältige Lebensbereiche umfasst und den Geräten als ambivalente Artefakte unterschiedlichste Einflüsse positiver wie negativer Natur zugeschrieben werden so gehen diese im kontemporalen Nairobi zum way of life Sie sind Symbol für die Teilhabe am globalen Dorf komplex zu dechiffrierende Zeichen sozialer Distinktion sowie Signifikate einer lokal verorteten Afromoderne An Anthology of African Cultural Studies, Volume I Keyan G. Tomaselli, Handel Kashope Wright, 2024-10-04 This volume provides an overview of fundamental or grounding themes in African Cultural Studies including the articulation of African cultural studies the issue of Africa's diaspora's African identity and identifications and media studies in Africa and its relationship with cultural studies The first of two volumes the book predominantly pulls together a rich reservoir of previously published articles from Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies mapping a long history of the field that draws from a diverse range of origins and locations especially from within Africa itself The first section of the book addresses how African cultural studies has been called for and explained both as a comprehensive continental and sometimes national discourse and as being in conversation with established global cultural studies The second section addresses the African diaspora and what might be termed diasporic African cultural studies A third principal theme explored is how African identities and identifications are articulated in African cultural studies On spatiality the volume takes a stance on the exclusive continental versus continuity conception of Africa the African diaspora is treated as contributory and its relationship to the continent as problematic while taking up continental Africa as the principal location of African cultural studies In terms of identity Blackness is taken up as the dominant but importantly not exclusive racial identity and identification of African cultural studies and gender and social class are also addressed in novel ways The book ends with an examination of the complex relationship between media studies and cultural studies This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African cultural studies media and cultural studies African studies history politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the sub field of African cultural studies

The Palgrave Handbook of African Social Ethics Nimi Wariboko, Toyin Falola, 2020-03-30 This Handbook provides a robust collection of vibrant discourses on African social ethics and ethical practices It focuses on how the ethical thoughts of Africans are forged within the context of everyday life and how in turn ethical and philosophical thoughts inform day to day living The essays frame ethics as a historical phenomenon best examined as a historical movement the dynamic ethos of a people rather than as a theoretical construct It thereby offers a bold incisive and fresh interpretation of Africa's ethical life and thought

African Migration, Human Rights and Literature Fareda Banda, 2020-12-24 This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature The author uses a rich mix of novels short stories literary realism human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers The book is divided into two Part one is conceptual and focuses on art activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice Using Mazrui's diasporas of slavery and colonialism it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti migration policies of western states Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co sovereigns of the First World through citizenship The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes Attention is paid to life post arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture taking on jobs for which they are over qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status focusing on women LGBTI individuals and children Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts the chapter examines the post arrival lives of children some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders The conclusion follows starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue This book provides fascinating reading for academics students of law literature gender and migration studies and indeed the general public

West Africa Eugene L. Mendonsa, 2002 This introductory book covers West Africa's history social organization and contemporary setting It analyzes the many present day problems facing West Africans such as the lack of development dependency on economic relations with wealthy countries poor governance interference by the military in civilian affairs corruption and the lack of functioning democratic governments This book also shows how West African indigenous civilization developed its humanitarian democratic and communalistic nature Traditional political processes and ancestral customs are put forth as ways of solving West Africa's modern problems Divided into three main parts The Setting and Social Organization The History of West Africa and The Modern Era the main objective of this textbook is to teach students about the depth of African civilization and how its principles can be used to address modern day problems in West Africa Mendonsa expresses the opinion that in order to solve current problems plaguing the region a knowledge of history African culture and ancient African beliefs is crucial The Teacher's Manual includes chapter outlines and summaries key points sample questions and suggested films and websites

Encyclopedia of African History Kevin Shillington, 2005 Covering the entire continent from Morocco Libya and Egypt in the north to the Cape of Good Hope in the south and the surrounding islands from Cape Verde in the west to Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles in the east this A-Z reference examines the history of the entire African continent With entries ranging from the earliest evolution of human beings in Africa to the beginning of the twenty first century this comprehensive three volume Encyclopedia is the first reference of this scale and scope In nearly 1 100 entries the Encyclopedia not only examines the well established topics in African history but also looks at the social economic linguistic anthropological and political subjects that are being re evaluated or newly opened for historical analysis by recent research and publication
