Perspectives On Education Policy:

Critical Perspectives on Education Policy and Schools, Families, and Communities Sue Winton,Gillian Parekh,2020-03-01 Critical Perspectives on Education Policy and Schools Families and Communities offers scholars students and practitioners important new knowledge about how current policies impact families schools and community partnerships The book s authors share a critical orientation towards policy and policy research and invite readers to think differently about what policy is who policymakers are and what policy can achieve Their chapters discuss findings from research grounded in diverse theories including institutional ethnography critical disability theory and critical race theory The authors encourage scholars of family school and community partnerships to ask who benefits from policies and who loses and how proposed reforms maintain or disrupt existing relations of power The chapters present original research on a broad range of policies at the local state provincial and national levels in Canada and the USA Some authors look closely at the enactment of specific district policies including a school district s language translation policy and a policy to create local advisory bodies as part of decentralization efforts Other chapters reveal the often unacknowledged yet necessary work parents do to meet their children s needs and enable schools to operate A few chapters focus on challenges and paradoxes of including families and community members in policymaking processes including a case where parents demonstrated a preference for a policy that research demonstrates can be detrimental to their children s future education opportunities Another set of chapters emphasizes the centrality of policy texts and how language influences the educational experiences and engagement of students and their families Each chapter concludes with a discussion of implications of the research for educators families and other community partners    Discursive Perspectives on Education Policy and Implementation Jessica Nina Lester,Chad R. Lochmiller,Rachael E. Gabriel,2017-07-12 This edited volume demonstrates some of the potential contributions of discourse analytic approaches to the study of education policy and its implementation within particular policy contexts Contributing authors provide a range of perspectives examining education policy using both micro analytic traditions and more macro analytic traditions With examples of research focused on various stages of the policy process from agenda setting and policy making to implementation and media representations this volume will appeal to scholars engaged in research at the intersection of education policy and discourse analysis and to students with specific interests in education policy and qualitative research methods    Knowledge, Values and Educational Policy Harry Daniels,Hugh Lauder,Jill Porter,2012-07-26 Knowledge Values and Educational Policy focuses on what schools are for and what should be taught in them how learning is possible across boundaries and issues of diversity and equity Policies and practices relating to schools are also considered Within this volume internationally renowned contributors address a number of fundamental questions designed to take the reader to the heart of current debates around curriculum knowledge transfer equity and social justice and system reform such as What are schools and what are they for What knowledge should schools teach How are learners different from each other and how are groups of learners different from one another in terms of social class gender ethnicity and disability What influence does educational policy have on improving schools What influence does research have on our understanding of education and schooling To encourage reflection many of the chapters also include questions for debate and a guide to further reading Read alongside its companion volume Educational Theories Cultures and Learning readers will be encouraged to consider and think about on some of the key issues facing education and educationists today
