about four centuries until the Galician scholar Isaiah Sonne 1887-1960 published a Hebrew annotated edition of the chronicle in the 1930s. This remarkable source offers an account of the events of the Papal States during Paul IV's pontificate 1555-59. Making use of broad archival materials, Martina Mampieri reflects on the nature of this work, its historical background and contents, providing a revised edition of the Hebrew text as well as the first unabridged English translation and commentary. Martina Mampieri has been granted a special mention of excellence in the Alberigo Award 2021 by the European Academy of Religion and Fondazione per le Scienze Religiose <https://www.europeanacademyofreligion.org/alberigo-award> and a special mention of excellence in the Pirovano Award 2022 by the Istituto Luigi Sturzo in Rome <http://sturzo.it/blog/2023/06/12/assegnazione-del-premio-desiderio-pirovano-2022>. Martina Mampieri provides scholars with a source of great interest which helps better understand the complex period following the election of Pope Paul IV Carafa from a Jewish perspective. This is undoubtedly an important book that contributes to the advancement of our knowledge regarding that historical moment. Alessandra Veronese AJS Review 45:1 (2021). This valuable source is now available to the many, the many, including and this is no small thing those who study the history of historical writing for itself as that writing began emerging from the shadows at just this time. We are deeply indebted. Kenneth Stow, University of Haifa Emeritus, Journal of Modern Jewish Studies 20:1 (2021). By triangulating important themes in early modern history with a rich and lengthy narrative source, Mampieri has produced an outstanding contribution to the ever-growing literature on interreligious and intercultural relations in the Papal States. Frank Lacopo, Sixteenth Century Journal LIII:2 (2022).

Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 2001. Catalog of Copyright Entries, Library of Congress, Copyright Office, 1953. "Architecture, Art and Identity in Venice and its Territories, 1450-1750" Nebahat Avcioglu, 2017-07-05. Cities are shaped as much by a repertoire of buildings, works and objects as by cultural institutions, ideas and interactions between forms and practices entangled in identity formations. This is particularly true when seen through a city as forceful and splendid as Venice. The essays in this volume investigate these connections between art and identity through discussions of patronage, space and the dissemination of architectural models and knowledge in Venice, its territories and beyond. They celebrate Professor Deborah Howard's leading role in fostering a historically grounded and interdisciplinary approach to the art and architecture of Venice. Based on an examination and re-interpretation of a wide range of archival material and primary sources, the contributing authors approach the notion of identity in its many guises: as self-representation, as strong sub-currents of spatial strategies, as visual and semantic discourses and as political and imperial aspirations. Employing interdisciplinary modes of interpretation, these studies offer ground-breaking analyses of canonical sites and works of art, diverse groups of patrons as well as the life and oeuvre of leading architects such as Jacopo Sansovino and Andrea Palladio. In so doing, they link together citizens and nobles, past and present, the real and the symbolic space and sound, religion and power, the city and its parts, Venice and the Stato da Mar, the Serenissima and the Sublime Port.
