Selected Poems 1955-1976:

Selected Poems (1955-1976) Edwin Honig, 1979 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4,000 contemporary poets worldwide, this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well-known poets, talented up-and-coming writers are also profiled. Contents: Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners, organizations, magazines, and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate, Oxford University professors of poetry, poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature, winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry, and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes. International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up-to-date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets. The Labor Wars in Cordoba, 1955-1976 James Brennan, 2009-07-01 Cordoba is Argentina's second largest city, a university town that became the center of its automobile industry. In the decade following the overthrow of Juan Peron's government in 1955, the city experienced rapid industrial growth. The arrival of IKA, Renault, and Fiat fostered a particular kind of industrial development and created a new industrial worker of predominantly rural origins. Former farm boys and small town dwellers were thrust suddenly into the world of the modern factory and the multinational corporation. The domination of the local economy by a single industry and the prominent role played by the automobile workers' unions brought about the greatest working class protest in postwar Latin American history: the 1969 Cordobazo. Following the Cordobazo, the local labor movement was one characterized by intense militancy and determined opposition to both authoritarian military governments and the Peronist trade union bureaucracy. These labor wars have been mythologized as a Latin American equivalent to the French student strikes of May/June 1968 and the Italian hot summer of the same period. Analyzing these events in the context of recent debates on Latin American working class politics, Brennan demonstrates that the pronounced militancy and even political radicalism of the Cordoban working class were due not only to Argentina's changing political culture but also to the dynamic relationship between the factory and society during those years. Brennan draws on corporate archives in Argentina, France, and Italy, as well as previously unknown union archives. Readers interested in Latin American studies, labor history, industrial relations, political science, industrial sociology, and international business will all find value in this important analysis of labor politics. Contemporary Literary Criticism, 1973 Walt Whitman Jim Perlman, Ed Folsom, Dan Campion, 1998 A monumental gathering of writings by over 60 authors from Emerson to Alexie that traces Whitman's enduring influence. Fictional and Cinematic Treatment of Time in Five French Authors, 1955-1976 Yuri Vidov Karageorge, 1983 The International Who's Who, 1989-90, 1989 Contemporary Poets James Vinson, D. L. Kirkpatrick, 1985 Contemporary Authors Autobiography Series, 1989
