Wells* H. G. Wells, 2007-12-18 Ursula K Le Guin's selection of twenty six stories showcases H G Wells's genius and reintroduces readers to his singular talent for making the unbelievable seem utterly plausible He envisioned a sky filled with airplanes before Orville Wright ever left the ground He described the spectacle of space travel decades before men set foot on the moon H G Wells was a visionary a man of science with an enduring literary touch and his originality and inventiveness are fully on display in this essential collection Wells imagined both dark and bright futures because his creed allowed both while promising neither and because the eighty years of his life were years of immense intellectual and technological accomplishment and appalling violence and destruction Ursula K Le Guin from the introduction Everything one imagines in the way of genius and fun Rebecca West Including these stories A Slip Under the Microscope The Remarkable Case of Davidson's Eyes The Plattner Story Under the Knife The Crystal Egg The New Accelerator The Stolen Body The Argonauts of the Air In the Abyss The Star The Land Ironclads A Dream of Armageddon The Lord of the Dynamos The Valley of Spiders The Story of the Late Mr Elvisham The Man Who Could Work Miracles The Magic Shop Mr Skelmersdale in Fairyland The Door in the Wall The Presence by the Fire A Vision of Judgment The Story of the Last Trump The Wild Asses of the Devil Answer to Prayer The Queer Story of Brownlow's Newspaper The Country of the Blind The Collected Short Stories of Murray Leinster Murray Leinster, 2023-12-15 Murray Leinster's The Collected Short Stories of Murray Leinster offers a rich tapestry of science fiction narratives that reflect the author's pioneering contributions to the genre Characterized by concise prose and inventive concepts Leinster's stories traverse themes of technology human interaction with the cosmos and speculative futures Written during the early to mid 20th century his works often echo the cultural anxieties and aspirations of a rapidly modernizing world making them both timely and timeless The collection showcases Leinster's versatility from thrilling space voyages to thought provoking social commentaries each piece illustrating his mastery of narrative structure and imaginative depth Murray Leinster born as William Fitzgerald Jenkins was a prolific writer whose extensive career spanned over seven decades His profound interest in technology and science likely influenced by his upbringing in the early 20th century manifests in his insightful explorations of the unknown Leinster's writings not only captivated readers but also influenced future generations of science fiction authors making his perspectives invaluable in understanding the evolution of the genre This anthology is a must read for both enthusiasts and scholars of science fiction Leinster's ability to blend engaging storytelling with thought provoking themes renders this collection essential for understanding pivotal shifts in speculative literature Dive into these tales and discover the roots of concepts that continue to resonate within the genre today The Country of the Blind and other Selected Stories H. G. Wells, 2007-05-31 Herbert George Wells was perhaps best known as the author of such classic works of science fiction as The Time Machine and War of the Worlds. But it was in his short stories written when he was a young man embarking on a literary career that he first explored the enormous potential of the scientific discoveries of the day. He described his stories as a miscellany of inventions yet his enthusiasm for science was tempered by an awareness of its horrifying destructive powers and the threat it could pose to the human race. A consummate storyteller, he made fantastic creatures and machines entirely believable and by placing ordinary men and women in extraordinary situations, he explored with humor what it means to be alive in a century of rapid scientific progress.
