individual and communal calling carries an exemplary power to inspire and strengthen all who withstand the forces in today's world that seek to diminish or control the image of God in individuals and in creation. Far from being cut off from society, this anthology demonstrates that the religious life is one of its most profound and essential shaping forces. The Carmelite Tradition Steven Payne, 2011-06-01 Eight hundred years ago Albert of Jerusalem gave the hermit penitents of Mount Carmel a way of life to follow. Since then this rule has inspired and formed mystics and scholars, men and women lay and ordained, to seek the living God. In The Carmelite Tradition Steven Payne OCD brings together representative voices to demonstrate the richness and depth of Carmelite spirituality. As he writes, Carmelite spirituality seeks nothing more nor less than to stand before the face of the living God and prophesy with Elijah to hear the word of God and keep it with Mary to grow in friendship with God through unceasing prayer with Teresa to become by participation what Christ is by nature as John of the Cross puts it, and thereby to be made like Therese of Lisieux into instruments of God's transforming merciful love in the church and society. The lives and writings in The Carmelite Tradition invite readers to stand with these holy men and women and seek God in the hermitage of the heart. Steven Payne OCD of the Washington Province of Discalced Carmelite Friars is a member of the Carmelite Friars formation team at the Monastery of St John of the Cross near Nairobi, Kenya, and director of the Institute of Spirituality and Religious Formation ISRF at Tangaza College, a constituent college of the Catholic University of Eastern Africa CUEA in Nairobi. He is the past editor of ICS Publications and of Spiritual Life magazine and the author of several works in philosophy of religion, theology, and Carmelite spirituality. He is a member of the Carmelite Forum and of the Carmelite Institute in Washington DC, of which he is a past president. Passing Guests Alan Davey, 2025-01-23

The psalmist's cogent lines that humans are both passing guests and aliens like all of our forebears (Ps 39:12) bind humans together in their lived experiences. This temporary status on earth is reinforced in the changing seasons from winter to spring to summer to fall, year after year. The seasons are both a physical reality persons experience and a metaphor for their spiritual journeys. The days are not all the same as varied as the seasons; they come and go carrying with them a mixture of calm and stormy periods of pain and pleasure of light and dark. The voyage of life is replete with the accompanying emotions and sensations, whether joyful or despairing. Attending to the seasons with their own rhythms and colors provides a helpful conduit for a journey into deeper things, a spiritual exploration one might say. Passing Guests, a collection of fifty-two short reflections coordinated with the changing weather of the four seasons, seeks to support this exploration. Each entry centers on a quotation from a wise person who inspired the musings. Some entries are accompanied by photographs taken by the author, suggesting new avenues for meditation beyond the words on the page. Whatever season one is in, the hope is that through such attention readers will find themselves in concert with the Giver, Sustainer, and Healer of all that truly matters, to recognize they are valued, loved, and welcomed guests of the Creator and Redeemer, God, as they travel their days under the sun. Woman to Woman Phyllis Zagano, 1993 Spanning nearly one thousand years in the history of spirituality, these works are written by mystics Contemplatives intellectuals poets and dreamers Remarkable Women, Remarkable Wisdom Mary Francis Gangloff,2001 Inside you will find a mentor for each day of the year with a short biography a quote by or about her a quote from Scripture and a few reflections to help you absorb the message and meaning of each unique life Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart James A. Wallace,2002 Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart is about words most particularly it is a book about the Word the living Word of God found in the Scriptures and embodied once and for all in the person of Jesus the Word made flesh In Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart Fr James Wallace offers a nuanced consideration of the homily as nourishment He focuses on three common liturgical contexts feasts of the Lord feasts of Mary and the saints and the sacramental rites He relates the preaching that occurs within each area to one of the heart s basic hungers for wholeness the great feasts of the Lord for guidance feasts of Mary and the saints and for meaning various rites He also addresses the spirituality of the preacher as it is worked out in the process of preparation For preachers and students in schools of ministry who are preparing to preach Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart will serve as a useful tool to help satisfy the hunger to preach the Gospel It includes homilies that provide excellent starting points for preachers looking for ideas Chapter one considers the image of feeding God s people with the Word of God Chapter two considering the innermost hunger of the human person looks to the preaching that takes place on the great feasts of the Lord and how such preaching can nourish the hunger for wholeness Chapter three returns to the hunger for meaning already mentioned and extends to the other sacramental celebrations the homily s capacity to meet this hunger including those addressed by the various sacramental celebrations of the Church such as baptisms weddings funerals rites of reconciliation and anointing of the sick Chapters four and five present the homily as responding to the hunger to belong The final chapter considers one other hunger of the heart unique to the preacher referred to by John Paul II as a hunger to preach the gospel Pastores Dabo Vobis no 28 Chapters are Preaching s Task in a New Millennium Feeding God s People Preaching the Feasts of the Lord and the Hunger for Wholeness Preaching Within the Sacramental Rites and the Hunger for Meaning Preaching Through the Saints and the Hunger for Belonging I The Saints Preaching Through the Saints and the Hunger for Belonging II Mary and Cultivating the Preacher s Hunger To Make the Gospel Known and Loved James A Wallace CSsR PhD is professor of homiletics at Washington Theological Union His previous works include Preaching Through the Saints and The Ministry of Lectors published by The Liturgical Press He has also authored numerous articles and has given preaching conferences and workshops in the U S and abroad Encyclopedia of Catholic Literature Mary R. Songs Out of Silence Robert F. Morneau, 2010-03 Jessica Powers 1905-1988 entered the Carmel of the Mother of God in Milwaukee Wisconsin in 1941 For forty seven years she lived a contemplative life of prayer and fasting of community and sacrifice indeed a life of faith hope and love Her Scotch Irish background marked her with both humor and melancholy but her heart was centered on the mystery of God God graced Jessica Powers with a poetic heart Year after year her words captured various aspects of our human journey birth and death love and fear sin and grace joy and sorrow Jessica Powers was a noticer few things escaped her attentive mind and heart Graced with an agile pen she was able to transpose life's experiences into verses that have enriched thousands of people's lives. We all stand in need of models and mentors of witnesses of gospel living and wise guides. Although she would never have claimed this title, Jessica Powers is a mentor. Through her insights and creative writings, she has left us a legacy of wisdom that can sustain us on life's long pilgrimage. Though a cloistered contemplative now deceased some twenty years, she continues to teach us many things about the ways of God and the wonders of God's world. Bishop Morneau's wise and pithy meditations from twenty-one masters of the spiritual life will carry you through the day. You'll want it in your purse or pocket. Dana Greene, author of biographies of Evelyn Underhill, Maisie Ward, and Denise Levertov. Carmelus, 1990. American National Biography, 1999. Mary's Song. Mary Catherine Nolan, 2001. A look in the Magnificat verse by verse. Explores timeless themes such as joy, mercy, regard for the poor, and prayer. Helps the reader recognize the significance Mary's Song can have in our lives today in the way we live and the way we pray. The Encyclopedia of American Catholic History. Michael Glazier, Thomas J. Shelley, 1997. The encyclopedia lists essential data on all Catholic colleges and universities and on all religious institutions of men and women, but it was not feasible to have a separate entry on each. Therefore a representative selection was made and articles were written on some of the larger and smaller colleges and universities and the same procedure was adopted with the religious orders and congregations. Unfortunately, space did not permit the inclusion of every important person or event in American Catholic history. Introduction. The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2001.
