Theatre of Exile Horacio Czertok, 2015-07-24 How might the organic link between theatre making and political action be revitalised And how might a spontaneous vision of a theatre of and for ordinary people be reignited Since his political exile from Argentina in 1977 theatre director and producer Horacio Czertok has devoted his life to re imagining the art of the theatre taking it out of its comfort zone into places of social conflict such as deprived suburban areas prisons and mental hospitals as well as open public spaces engaging directly with audiences in a spirit of abiding carnivalesque and deeply political theatrical experimentation Adapting a rigorous Stanislavskian theatrical training to the exigencies of raw immediate encounters with audiences in marginal and open spaces Czertok s theatre making is unique not only in the kinds of capacities and skills it allows actors to develop but also in the way it renders the question of political efficacy immanent to the very process of making theatre Providing Czertok s own highly personal account of his trajectory in the global scene of theatre making over the past half century this is a book about the theatre of exile a theatre of streets prisons hospitals open to direct and unexpected encounters with audiences and their life experiences Photos by Luca Gavagna The Interactive World of Severe Mental Illness Diana J. Semmelhack, Larry Ende, Arthur Freeman, Clive Hazell, Colleen L. Barron, Garry L. Treft, 2015-07-03 In our society medication is often seen as the treatment for severe mental illness with psychotherapy a secondary treatment However quality social interaction may be as important for the recovery of those with severe mental illness as are treatments This volume makes this point while describing the emotionally moving lives of eight individuals with severe mental illness as they exist in the U S mental health system Offering social and psychological insight into their experiences these stories demonstrate how patients can create meaningful lives in the face of great difficulties Based on in depth interviews with clients with severe mental illness this volume explores which structures of interaction encourage growth for people with severe mental illness and which trigger psychological damage It considers the clients relationships with friends family peers spouses lovers co workers mental health professionals institutions the community and the society as a whole It focuses specifically on how structures of social interaction can promote or harm psychological growth and how interaction dynamics affect the psychological well being of individuals with severe mental illness Doris Lessing and Sufi Equilibrium S. Fahim, 1994-07-12 The purpose of this study is to examine the rationale of Doris Lessing s development from Classical Realism to mysticism and forms of science fiction and to consider the unifying motifs that appear throughout her novels in her consistent search for Sufi Equilibrium The four novels selected in this study represent significant stages in Lessing's work Chapter one focuses on The Grass is Singing which represents the author's early traditionally realistic writing to show how far the preoccupations of Lessing's later novels find expression in this early work Chapter two studies The Golden Notebook which marks a turning point in formal structure in Lessing's canon and is selected as evidence of her interest in Sufism at that early stage Chapter three concentrates on the study of The Memoirs of a Survivor which has elicited a comparatively limited amount of criticism but which proves to be a major achievement when brought into line with Sufi methods of writing Chapter four considers Lessing's science fiction series Canopus in Argos tracing sources from Oriental literature a key which unlocks many areas of obscurity

The Publishers Weekly, 1982 African Sociology Bernard Magubane, 2000 The sociological and political writings of Bernard Makhosezwe Magubane on African political history political economy and political philosophy constitute a vital portion of a monumental legacy to later generations by an African intellectual who came to maturity through an historical consciousness that emerged during the 1960s This was a period characterized by the radical contentious philosophies of history African marxism African nationalism and the reactionary ideologies aligned with imperialism and colonialism The essays of Bernard Makhosezwe Magubane stand at a fascinating intersection with the intellectual systems of Frantz Fanon H I E Dhlomo Ngugi wa Thiong o and Amilcar Cabral They are first and foremost what Cabral and Fanon were clamoring for an instrumentarium of the construction of a progressive African ideology or African ideologies What enabled them to realize this remarkable breakthrough is that they are a continuation of the revolutionary thought of Fanon and Cabral Magubane was among the first African academic scholars to have seen the historical significance of Fanon and Cabral respectively in the mid 1960s and in the early 1970s Written in exile during the exile period in South African intellectual and cultural history these essays until recently were not easily historically locatable within the genealogical structure of South African intellectual traditions Undoubtedly this had been due to the political philosophy of apartheid and its ideological manifestations Balcanica ,2006 Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1970 American Book Publishing Record ,2000-07 Library Journal ,1978 Paperbound Books in Print ,1991
