Self Revealment A Memoir:

Raphael Soyer and the Search for Modern Jewish Art Samantha Baskind, 2015-12-01 Artist Raphael Soyer 1899 1987 whose Russian Jewish family settled in Manhattan in 1912 was devoted to painting people in their everyday urban lives He came to be known especially for his representations of city workers and the down and out and for his portraits of himself and his friends Although Soyer never identified himself as a Jewish artist Samantha Baskind in the first full length critical study of the artist argues that his work was greatly influenced by his ethnicity and by the Jewish American immigrant experience Baskind examines the painter's art and life in the rich context of religious cultural political and social conditions in the twentieth century United States By promoting an understanding of Soyer as a Jewish American artist she addresses larger questions about the definition and study of modern Jewish art Whereas previous scholars have defined Jewish art simply as art produced by people who were born Jewish Baskind stresses the importance of an artist's cultural identity when defining ethnic art As Baskind explains how Soyer negotiated his Jewish identity in changing ways over his lifetime she offers new strategies for identifying and interpreting Jewish art in general Her analysis of Soyer's work places the artist in a necessary context and provides a valuable new approach to the study of modern Jewish art The Secular Rabbi Doris

Kadish, 2021-03-01 The Secular Rabbi is an intellectual biography of Philip Rahv co founder of Partisan Review which T S Eliot called the best American literary periodical It focuses on the ambivalent ties that Rahv a Russian immigrant retained to his Jewish cultural background Drawing on letters Rahv wrote to her mother from 1928 to 1931 when he was still named Philip Greenberg Doris Kadish delves into the complex and enigmatic character of a man admired by luminaries as diverse as George Orwell Mary McCarthy Saul Bellow Elizabeth Hardwick and William Styron Textual analyses of Rahv's works are woven together with other disparate materials historical accounts genealogical records memoirs by Rahv's colleagues friends and associates interviews with persons who knew him and the abundant body of secondary scholarship devoted to the New York intellectuals the history of Partisan Review and Jewish studies Kadish positions herself in relation to Rahv in attempting to understand her own Jewish identity In tracing Rahv's personal political and literary evolution Kadish sheds light on such literary movements as modernism proletarian literature and Jewish writing as well as movements that defined American political history in the 20th century immigration socialism communism fascism the cold war feminism and the New Left

Raphael Soyer Raphael Soyer, 1977 The Golden Door Cynthia Jaffee McCabe, Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden, 1976 Catalog of the Library of the Whitney Museum of American Art, New York, New York Whitney Museum of American Art. Library, 1979 Familiar and Foreign Manijeh Mannani, Veronica Thompson, 2015-09-30 The current political climate of confrontation between Islamist regimes and Western governments has resulted in the proliferation of essentialist perceptions of Iran and Iranians in the West Such perceptions do not reflect the complex evolution of Iranian identity that occurred in the years following the Constitutional Revolution 1906 11 and the anti imperialist Islamic Revolution of 1979

Despite the Iranian government's determined pursuance of anti Western policies and strict conformity to religious principles the film and literature of Iran reflect the clash between a nostalgic pride in Persian tradition and an apparent infatuation with a more Eurocentric modernity In Familiar and Foreign Mannani and Thompson set out to explore the tensions surrounding the ongoing formulation of Iranian identity by bringing together essays on poetry novels memoir and films These include both canonical and less widely theorized texts as well as works of literature written in English by authors living in diaspora Challenging neocolonialist stereotypes these critical excursions into Iranian literature and film reveal the limitations of collective identity as it has been configured within and outside of Iran Through the examination of works by among others the iconic female poet Forugh Farrokhzad the expatriate author Goli Taraghi the controversial memoirist Azar Nafisi and the graphic novelist Marjane Satrapi author of Persepolis this volume engages with the complex and contested discourses of religion patriarchy and politics that are the contemporary product of Iran's long and revolutionary history
