Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures George Haggerty,Bonnie Zimmerman,2003-09-02

Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this Encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavours While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the Encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new researchers this is intended as a reference for students and scholars in all areas of study as well as the general public

The New Campus Anti-Rape Movement Caroline Heldman,Alissa R. Ackerman,Ian Breckenridge-Jackson,2018-05-29 After 40 years of activists working to reduce sexual violence on college campuses in 2014 the new Campus Anti Rape Movement CARM finally put this issue on the national policy agenda President Barack Obama credited an inspiring wave of student led activism for catapulting campus rape into public consciousness This book positions the new CARM within a long history of anti sexual violence activism in the U S The authors describe the major events of this new movement and how it coalesced The authors also analyze the new CARM through a social movement lens and examine the role of new laws and social media in facilitating movement successes The book argues that the new CARM laid the groundwork for the emergence of MeToo the highest profile campaign against sexual harassment violence to date in U S history

Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures Bonnie Zimmerman,George Haggerty,2021-06-13 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavors It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a widerange of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new scholars whose research continues to advance gender studies into the future

Crime and Fear in Public

Places Vania Ceccato, Mahesh Nalla, 2020-07-15 The Open Access version of this book available at <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/9780429352775> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license No city environment reflects the meaning of urban life better than a public place A public place whatever its nature a park a mall a train platform or a street corner is where people pass by meet each other and at times become a victim of crime With this book we submit that crime and safety in public places are not issues that can be easily dealt with within the boundaries of a single discipline The book aims to illustrate the complexity of patterns of crime and fear in public places with examples of studies on these topics contextualized in different cities and countries around the world This is achieved by tackling five cross cutting themes the nature of the city's environment as a backdrop for crime and fear the dynamics of individuals' daily routines and their transit safety the safety perceptions experienced by those who are most in fear in public places the metrics of crime and fear and finally examples of current practices in promoting safety All these original chapters contribute to our quest for safer more inclusive resilient equitable and sustainable cities and human settlements aligned to the Global 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development
