Black Belt ,2004-07 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known marital arts figure in the world Thoughtful Cinema Thomas E. Wartenberg,2025 Anyone who has seen a film and then followed up with a cup of coffee or glass of wine as they discuss it with friends knows that films can inspire thoughtful conversation and further reflection sometimes long after their initial screening Thoughtful Cinema explores how films raise and suggest answers to philosophical questions through an in depth analysis of how seven films engage with various philosophical traditions ranging from the nineteenth century German philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche to the twentieth and twenty first century American philosopher Judith Jarvis Thomson Films can do philosophy this book argues as a result of their ability to illustrate philosophical claims and theories However the films discussed in this book do much more than that they also supplement the philosophies they illustrate by expanding their claims and criticizing their assumptions Films therefore can make their own independent contributions to philosophical theory Thoughtful Cinema shows how films grapple with philosophical ideas such as personal identity the banality of evil authenticity euthanasia third party killing and the power of attention This book makes an important contribution to the debate about cinematic philosophy that has engaged both philosophers of film and film theorists for decades and it also proves that philosophy is not just a narrow specialty accessible only to trained practitioners Films that do philosophy address the essential concerns of human life and it s this characteristic their philosophical attention that makes them appeal to a wide audience The Encyclopedia of American Independent Filmmaking Vincent LoBrutto,2002-12-30 Independent filmmaking is often regarded as a relatively recent phenomenon yet the so called movement has actually existed as long as movies themselves In this indispensable single volume reference work LoBrutto surveys the subject from cinema s inception through the 21st century Written in an accessible style and including biographical critical factual and bibliographical information this remarkable source encompasses films and filmmakers operating independently from the studio system in concept financing production and distribution Such a broad interpretation of independent filmmaking separates it from that of commercial Hollywood a conglomerate existing to create product rather than support personal artistic vision Many of the entries subjects have rarely been investigated and studied yet knowledge of independent filmmaking is vital to any understanding the cinematic medium making this an essential book for any library s film shelves
