Seligmann Alfred Stieglitz Talking:

Art and the Crisis of Marriage Vivien Green Fryd, 2003 Between the two world wars middle class America experienced a marriage crisis that filled the pages of the popular press Divorce rates were rising birthrates falling and women were entering the increasingly industrialized and urbanized workforce in larger numbers than ever before while Victorian morals and manners began to break down in the wake of the first sexual revolution Vivien Green Fryd argues that this crisis played a crucial role in the lives and works of two of America's most familiar and beloved artists Georgia O'Keeffe 1887-1986 and Edward Hopper 1882-1967 Combining biographical study of their marriages with formal and iconographical analysis of their works Fryd shows how both artists expressed the pleasures and perils of their relationships in their paintings Hopper's many representations of Victorian homes in sunny tranquil landscapes for instance take on new meanings when viewed in the context of the artist's own tumultuous marriage with Jo and the widespread middle class fears that the new urban multidwelling homes would contribute to the breakdown of the family Fryd also persuasively interprets the many paintings of skulls and crosses that O'Keeffe produced in New Mexico as embodying themes of death and rebirth in response to her husband Alfred Stieglitz's long term affair with Dorothy Norman Art and the Crisis of Marriage provides both a penetrating reappraisal of the interconnections between Georgia O'Keeffe's and Edward Hopper's lives and works as well as a vivid portrait of how new understandings of family gender and sexuality transformed American society between the wars in ways that continue to shape it today

The Positive Image C. Jane Gover, 1988-01-01 The Positive Image tells the largely untold story of women photographers in turn of the century America Women like Gertrude Kasebier Frances Benjamin Johnston Alice Austen Catherine Weed Ward and Eva Watson Schmitz were among thousands of women who as professional and amateur photographers sought personal artistic and professional fulfillment while still connected to the traditional domestic environment These women created a positive experience for themselves in photography through an identifiable female network of women photographers through membership in camera clubs and in many cases through their association with photography great Alfred Stieglitz Theirs became an alliance between women art culture and technology in a time of intense social change in the United States
