Shahnama Robert Hillenbrand, 2017-07-05 Shahnama The Visual Language of the Persian Book of Kings presents the first comprehensive examination of the interplay between text and image in the celebrated Persian national epic the Shahnama written by the poet Firdausi of Tus The Shahnama is one of the longest poems ever composed and recounts the history of Iran from the dawn of time to the Muslim Arab conquests of the seventh century AD There is no Persian text in prose or poetry which has been so frequently and lavishly illustrated Offering fresh insights through a range of varied art historical approaches to the Shahnama the essays in this volume reveal how the subtle alterations in text and image serve to document changes in taste and style and can be understood as reflections of the changing role of the national epic in the imagination of Iranians and the equally changing messages often political in nature which the familiar stories were made to convey over the centuries

Soil and Stone Frances Fowle, 2017-07-05 The Impressionists are world renowned for their vibrant depictions of the atmospheric effects and shimmering beauty of the French countryside These paintings often produced in Paris found an enthusiastic market in the city The inhabitants of that hub of modernity had an apparently paradoxical interest in the mythologies of rural living As the city became more and more the motive force of social change so the country was understood as the anchor of changelessness and nostalgia The essayists in this volume examine the complex relationship between country and city Their work draws widely on the contemporary culture exploring folklore and children s literature anarchism and urbanism and offers significant new insights into the work of major artists and writers including Courbet Millet Monet Van Gogh and Zola changing views on the status of images and the nature of painterly skill Thus an age when monumental painting largely determined the character of the representational arts gave way to a period when books and book painting defined artistic
