Selected Writings Of Hildegard:

Selected Writings Saint Hildegard, 1098-1179 was one of the most remarkable figures of the Middle Ages. She undertook preaching tours throughout the German empire at the age of sixty and was consulted not only by her religious contemporaries but also by kings and emperors. Yet it is largely for her apocalyptic and mystical writings that she is remembered. This volume includes selections from her three visionary works, her treatises on medicine and the natural world, her devotional songs, and fascinating letters to prominent figures of her time. Dealing with such eternal subjects as the relationship between humans and nature and men and women, Hildegard's works show her to be a wide-ranging thinker who created such fresh, startling images and ideas that her writings have been compared to Dante and Blake.

Dictionary of Theologians Jonathan Hill, 2010-03-25. An exhaustive guide to every significant Christian theologian who lived from the first century to 1308, the year in which John Duns Scotus died. The dictionary encompasses the Catholic, Orthodox, Nestorian, and Monophysite traditions, including information not previously available in English. Thoroughly indexed, the dictionary incorporates common variants of names and concepts which will help and direct the reader. The main criterion for inclusion has been contribution to the development of Christian theology. Subcriteria by which that is measured include, above all, originality and influence on later figures. With over 290 entries, the dictionary provides a handy summary of theologians' lives and writings together with recent scholarship, as well as an up-to-date definitive bibliography listing primary texts, translations, and secondary literature in the major Western European languages. Useful for all levels of academia, no other text matches the depth of the dictionary's bibliographies. The unprecedented thoroughness of Hill's compilation provides an essential resource for studies at all levels on such a large and varied range of Church thinkers.

The Power of a Woman's Voice in Medieval and Early Modern Literatures Albrecht Classen, 2012-02-13. The study takes the received view among scholars that women in the Middle Ages were faced with sustained misogyny and that their voices were seldom heard in public and subjects it to a critical analysis. The ten chapters deal with various aspects of the question, and the voices of a variety of authors, both female and male, are heard. The study opens with an enquiry into violence against women, including in texts by male writers: Hartmann von Aue, Gottfried von Straburg, Wolfram von Eschenbach, which indeed describe instances of violence but adopt an extremely critical stance towards them. It then proceeds to show how women were able to develop an independent identity in various genres and could present themselves as authorities in the public eye. Mystic texts by Hildegard of Bingen, Marie de France, and Margery Kempe, the medieval conduct poem known as Die Wilsbeckin, the Devout Books of Sisters composed in convents in South West Germany, but also quasi-historical documents such as the memoirs of Helene Kottanner or Anna Weckerin's cookery book demonstrate that far more women were in the public gaze than had hitherto been assumed and that they possessed the self-confidence to establish their positions with their intellectual and their literary achievements.

Catholic writers reflect their heritage in their works and generations of readers have continued to appreciate the Catholic literary tradition. Many works by Catholic writers hold a high place in the literary canon and have exerted a tremendous cultural and political influence. Still others continue to be widely read by contemporary readers and quietly shape modern society. Some works too reflect the conflicts of the Catholic Church in the 21st century and capture the struggles of individual Catholics in a secular society. This encyclopedia covers the vast riches of the Catholic literary tradition from its origins to the present day. Included are substantial entries on more than 70 major works from around the world. A special effort has been made to cover women writers and writers of diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds whose works reflect the many dimensions of the Catholic experience. The encyclopedia provides entries on such writers and works as St Augustine's Confessions, Catherine of Siena's Dialogue, Dante's The Divine Comedy, Sandra Cisneros' The House on Mango Street, J. R. R. Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings, and Muriel Spark's Memento Mori. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the writer, a plot summary of a major work, an extended critical discussion, an overview of the work's critical reception, and a selected bibliography. The entries give detailed attention to particular works and explore their relation to Catholic thought. The encyclopedia concludes with a selected general bibliography.

Secrets of God Hildegard of Bingen, 1996-07-09 A unique glimpse into the mind of the 12th-century visionary Hildegard of Bingen through her creative and insightful writings on medicine, spirituality, and more. Booklist Visionary mystic, poet, musician, naturalist, healer, theologian, the Rhineland nun Hildegard of Bingen (1098-1179) was a Renaissance woman long before there was a Renaissance. This is the first book in English to offer a representative selection of writings from all of her amazing range of work. Hildegard wrote many volumes on subjects from mystical vision to sexuality, from theology to natural medicine, in letters, treatises, poetry, and songs, all in an age when few women wrote more than an occasional letter. She was a woman of extraordinary influence whose work not only surpassed that of her male contemporaries in its range but also outshone them in visionary beauty and intellectual power. This collection includes a brief biography of Hildegard and selections from the following works: Scivias (literally "know the ways," the record of Hildegard's visions and her commentary on them), The Book of Life's Merits (visionary work), The Book of Divine Works (a work of cosmology and anthropology), Natural History (a record of plants, animals, and minerals translated here into English for the first time), Causes and Cures (a compendium of her writing on natural medicine), Symphonia (her songs and poetry), Biographical works, Selected letters.
