The book of the Bishop's castle and handbook of the archaeological collection Glasgow bishop's castle,1888 A Collection of Archaeological Pamphlets on Roman Remains Formed by Sir B.C.A. Windle and Relating Principally to Great Britain Sir Bertram Coghill Alan Windle,1882 The Routledge Handbook of Archaeological Human Remains and Legislation Nicholas Marquez-Grant,Linda Fibiger,2011-03-21 Methodologies and legislative frameworks regarding the archaeological excavation retrieval analysis curation and potential reburial of human skeletal remains differ throughout the world As work forces have become increasingly mobile and international research collaborations are steadily increasing the need for a more comprehensive understanding of different national research traditions methodologies and legislative structures within the academic and commercial sector of physical anthropology has arisen The Routledge Handbook of Archaeological Human Remains and Legislation provides comprehensive information on the excavation of archaeological human remains and the law through 62 individual country contributions from Europe Asia Africa North America South America and Australasia More specifically the volume discusses the following What is the current situation including a brief history of physical anthropology in the country What happens on discovering human remains who is notified etc What is the current legislation regarding the excavation of archaeological human skeletal remains Is a license needed to excavate human remains Is there any specific legislation regarding excavation in churchyards Any specific legislation regarding war graves Are physical anthropologists involved in the excavation process Where is the cut off point between forensic and archaeological human remains e g 100 years 50 years 25 years Can human remains be transported abroad for research purposes What methods of anthropological analysis are mostly used in the country Are there any methods created in that country which are population specific Are there particular ethical issues that need to be considered when excavating human remains such as religious groups or tribal groups In addition an overview of landmark anthropological studies and important collections are provided where appropriate The entries are contained by an introductory chapter by the editors which establish the objectives and structure of the book setting it within a wider archaeological framework and a conclusion which explores the current European and world wide trends and perspectives in the study of archaeological human remains The Routledge Handbook of Archaeological Human Remains and Legislation makes a timely much needed contribution to the field of physical anthropology and is unique as it combines information on the excavation of human remains and the legislation that guides it alongside information on the current state of physical anthropology across several continents It is an indispensable tool for archaeologists involved in the excavation of human remains around the world The Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958 Alok Tripathi,2007 Archaeological Sites of Kamchatka, Chukotka, and the Upper Kolyma Nikolai Nikolaevich Dikov,2003 When Archaeology Meets Communities: Impacting Interactions in Sicily over Two Eras (Messina, 1861-1918) Antonino Crisà,2018-07-16 When

Archaeology Meets Communities examines the history of nineteenth century Sicilian archaeology through the archival documentation for the excavations at Tindari Lipari and nearby minor sites in the Messina province from Italy's Unification to the end of the First World War 1861-1918 Superconducting Super Collider Site Selection ,1988 Robes, Romans, and Rituals in First Corinthians Aldar Nõmmik,2024-12-04 This thesis offers a novel interpretation of 1 Cor 11 2 16 in light of the Roman ritual practice of capite velato a custom of covering the head with a garment during prayer sacrifice and divination It traces linguistic and conceptual links between ancient descriptions and depictions of capite velato and 1 Cor 11 2 16 and demonstrates that this ritual gesture must have been familiar to Paul and his Corinthian interlocutors With the aid of cognitive science of religion this thesis explores the possible reasons for and implications of Paul's instructions on this Roman custom in First Corinthians It argues that 1 Cor 11 2 16 preserves a clash of values between Paul and his addressees in regards to the correct procedure and efficacy of prayer and accessing of divine knowledge some in Corinth had begun to argue that for the sake of uniformity all members of the Christ association including married women of all cultures should strip their heads of everything when in prayer or when seeking divine knowledge to match the appearance of Roman men whom Paul had asked not to pray with garments over the head In response to this Paul found a way to argue that praying with a garment over the head is only shameful for men but the same does not apply for women and so women can keep their head coverings and hair accessories on during prayer and prophecy While these instructions may have been intelligible to the original readers later interpreters of Paul who had no knowledge of the Sitz im Leben that prompted 1 Cor 11 2 16 misunderstood and misappropriated Paul's instructions in this passage mistakenly believing Paul to have been solely concerned with a faction of rebellious women in the Corinthian congregation These assumptions have dominated the readings of 1 Cor 11 2 16 but this thesis offers an alternative interpretation that builds on a more accurate understanding of ancient customs and ideals related to ritual head coverings The Archaeology of York: fasc. 1.
