Respublica Guelpherbytana ,2021-11-15      Textvarianz und Schriftkritik Jürgen Meyer,2010      Rhetoric and the Familiar in Francis Bacon and John Donne Daniel Derrin,2013-03-08 Rhetoric and the Familiar examines the writing and oratory of Francis Bacon and John Donne from the perspective of the faculty psychology they both inherited Both writers inherited the resources of the classical rhetorical tradition through their university education The book traces from within that tradition the sources of Bacon and Donne s ideas about the processes of mental image making reasoning and passionate feeling It analyzes how knowledge about those mental processes underlies the rhetorical planning of texts by Bacon such as New Atlantis Essayes or Counsels Novum Organum and the parliamentary speeches and of texts by Donne such as the Verse Letters Essayes in Divinity Holy Sonnets and the sermons The book argues that their rhetorical practices reflect a common appropriation of ideas about mental process from faculty psychology and that they deploy it in divergent ways depending on their rhetorical contexts It demonstrates the vital importance in early modern thinking about rhetoric of considering what familiar remembered material will occur to a given audience how that differs according to context and the problems the familiar entails      The Scandal of Sacramentality Brannon Hancock,2014-09-25 The sacrament par excellence the Eucharist has been upheld as the foundational sacrament of Christ s Body called church yet it has confounded Christian thinking and practice throughout history Its symbolism points to the paradox of the incarnation death and resurrection of God in Jesus of Nazareth which St Paul describes as a stumbling block skandalon Yet the scandal of sacramentality not only illustrated by but enacted in the Eucharist has not been sufficiently accounted for in the ecclesiologies and sacramental theologies of the Christian tradition Despite what appears to be an increasingly post ecclesial world sacrament remains a persistent theme in contemporary culture often in places least expected Drawing upon the biblical image of the Word made flesh this interdisciplinary study examines the scandal of sacramentality along the twofold thematic of the scandal of language word and the scandal of the body flesh While sacred theology can think through this scandal only at significant risk to its own stability the fictional discourses of literature and the arts are free to explore this scandal in a manner that simultaneously augments and challenges traditional notions of sacrament and sacramentality and by extension what it means to describe the church as a eucharistic community      Forum modernes Theater ,1988      Claudio Rodriguez & Language Jonathan Mayhew,1990 This study reverses the widespread notion that Rodriguez a major voice in contemporary Spanish poetry is a naive writer by interpreting his poetry as a sustained meditation on the problem of poetic language      Literal Figures Thomas H. Luxon,1995-04-15 Literal Figures is the most important work on John Bunyan to appear in many years and a significant contribution to the history and theory of representation Beginning with mainstream Puritan responses to a challenge to orthodoxy a man who claims he has been literally transformed into Christ and his companion who claims to be the Spouse of Christ and concluding with an analysis of The Pilgrim s Progress which John Bunyan described as a fall into

Allegory Thomas Luxon presents detailed analyses of key moments in the Reformation crisis of representation Why did Puritan Christianity repeatedly turn to allegorical forms of representation in spite of its own intolerance of Allegorical fancies Luxon demonstrates that Protestant doctrine itself was a kind of allegory in hiding one that enabled Puritans to forge a figural view of reality while championing the literal and the historical He argues that for Puritanism to survive its own literalistic anti symbolic and millenarian challenges a fall back into allegory was inevitable Representative of this fall The Pilgrim s Progress marks the culminating moment at which the Reformation s war against allegory turns upon itself An essential work for understanding both the history and theory of representation and the work of John Bunyan Literal Figures skillfully blends historical and critical methods to describe the most important features of early modern Protestant and Puritan culture Making Certain Ted Harold Miller,1999 Literature and Philosophy Herbert Grabes,1997

Literary and Scientific Experimentalism in Seventeenth and Early Eighteenth-century England Joanna Magali Picciotto,1999 A Fine Tuning Mary A. Maleski,1989 Commentary and Control in Shakespeare's Plays Peter Bilton,1974 The Wilson Chronology of Ideas George Ochoa,Melinda Corey,1998 This chronology selectively fulfills its subtitle of a record of philosophical political theological and social thought from ancient times to the present beginning with the Neanderthals in 48 000 B C and concluding with 15 diverse entries for 1997 Sidebars provide further enlightenment e g on the originator of the A D designation for years Contains an appendix on birth and death dates bibliography and expansive index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Regret Janet Landman,1993 Drawing from psychology economics philosophy anthropology and classic works of literature Landman provides an insightful anatomy of regret what it is how you experience it and how it changes you At best regret is a dynamic changing process one can transcend regret and thus transform the self Ariel ,1983 Proverbia in Fabula Pack Carnes,1988 The fable and the proverb have had a long history of very close relationships indeed in some cases they have been considered identical forms In other cases the function of the two forms fall together or exist in similar environments Often one of the two is used to explain the other These essays deal with the nature of that relationship from a wide range of viewpoints classical studies folkloristics literary studies and much more Nineteenth-century French Studies ,1983 Flaubert Lorin A. Uffenbeck,1984 Rhetorical Power Steven Mailloux,1989 In this provocative and forcefully written book Steven Mailloux takes issue with the validity of a number of distinctions commonly made in contemporary literary theory and cultural studies distinctions between theory and history reader and text truth and ideology aesthetics and politics Mailloux first presents the case for a rhetorical hermeneutics and against foundationalist theories of interpretation Doing hermeneutic theory he argues entails doing rhetorical history By means of a detailed analysis of reader response criticism he highlights the connections between institutional politics and the interpretive rhetoric of academic literary criticism Mailloux then uses Adventures of Huckleberry Finn as an exemplary text Relating Mark Twain s rhetoric to the cultural politics of post Reconstruction debates about racist ideology he places his reader oriented interpretation within the rhetorical history of controversies over the meaning and value of Huckleberry Finn Finally in a far ranging study of cultural reception he juxtaposes the twentieth century concern about the topic of race in Huckleberry Finn with the nineteenth century audience s very different concerns about juvenile delinquency and the bad boy boom In the final part of the book Mailloux restates his critique of foundationalist hermeneutics through readings of Ken Kesey Michel Foucault Edward Said and Richard Rorty and he concludes by examining the role of rhetoric and theory in a congressional dispute over the Reagan administration s reinterpretation of the Anti Ballistic Missile Treaty Rhetorical Power will be welcomed by readers in literary theory and American studies as well as in such fields as speech communication the sociology of culture and social and intellectual history and by others interested in the politics of persuasion     Bunyan in Our Time R. G. Collmer, 1989 Bunyan in Our Time brings together eight essays by New World Scholars as a celebration for the tercentenary of the death of the 17th century religious writer and contender for freedom of conscience John Bunyan
