Repair Poems:

Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion. The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore. This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service. To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage, the book is divided into eleven chapters. There are tributes for mothers, fathers, children, spouses, and soulmates, friends, siblings, and other close relatives, soldiers and victims of war or violence, pets, and general readings appropriate for men, women, or any loved one. These selections will also prove helpful for clergy, counselors, and hospice, hospital, and funeral professionals. Appendices list resources and support organizations, and each selection is indexed by author, title, and first line. A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film, novel, or celebrity's funeral, so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context. Poems Alexander Pope, 1893 The Poems of Goethe: Translated in the Original Metres Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 1874 The poems of Goethe, tr. in the original metres, with a sketch of Goethe's life by E.A. Bowring Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 1874 The Best American Poetry 2015 David Lehman, Sherman Alexie, 2015-09-08 The premier anthology of contemporary American poetry continues with an exceptional volume edited by award-winning novelist and poet Sherman Alexie, now with a new essay by Alexie on reactions to the 2015 publication. Since its debut in 1988, The Best American Poetry has become a mainstay for the direction and spirit of American poetry. Each volume in the series presents the year's most extraordinary new poems and writers. Guest editor Sherman Alexie's picks for The Best American Poetry 2015 highlight the depth and breadth of the American experience. Culled from electronic and print journals, the poems showcase some of our leading luminaries: Amy Gerstler, Terrance Hayes, Ron Padgett, Jane Hirshfield, and introduce a number of outstanding younger poets taking their place in the limelight. A leading figure since his breakout poetry collection The Business of Fancydancing in 1992, Sherman Alexie won the National Book Award for his novel The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian. He describes himself as lucky enough to be a full-time writer and has written short stories, novels, screenplays, and essays, but he is at his core a poet. As always, series editor David Lehman's foreword assessing the state of the art kicks off the book, followed by an introductory essay in which Alexie discusses his selections. The Best American Poetry 2015 is a guide to who's who and what's happening in American poetry today. The Shop and Other Poems, 2004 Repair C. K. Williams, 2000-06-15 Nominated for the National Book Award, the eighth book by one of our greatest poets. Always. These gigantic inconceivables. Always. What will have been done to me. And so we don our mental armor, flex, thrill, pay the strict attention we always knew we should. A violent alertness, the muscularity of risk, though still the secret inward cry. What else, what more from Risk. Repair is body work in C. K. Williams's sensual poems, but it is also an imaginative treatment of the consternations that interrupt life's easy narrative.
