We Can Be Superstars: Public Relations and Self-Promotion for the Playwright Bunny Ultramod, 2011-05-08

Ultramod's book is intended for playwrights who are not satisfied with being the anonymous figures behind stage plays relegated to a paragraph or two in a playbill while institutional theaters take a lion's share of the publicity. He makes the case that a playwright's career is dependent on the playwright building their own audience making use of both traditional public relations and innovative web techniques including using social media such as Twitter and Facebook. Ultramod's approach is decidedly outre; he feels that playwrights are the pop stars of the theater world and should be promoted as such. But within his breezy DIY punk approach are real tools for attracting the attention of the press and connecting with an audience. Ultramod draws on decades of experience in theater and in the media to offer readers a wild and witty crash course in press relations, web content creation, audience development, and how to make public misbehavior as entertaining as possible.

The Power of Promotion Rae A. Stonehouse, 2023-01-17 For many Toastmasters Clubs, one of the biggest challenges in running a successful and productive club is maintaining a constant flow of visitors to attend and join you and your fellow Toastmasters as a member. Members come and members go. Life happens. Your Club membership can quickly change from a healthy charter strength club to one in danger of losing its Charter. Veteran Toastmaster of three decades, Rae Stonehouse, DTM, Distinguished Toastmaster, PDG, Past District Governor, District 21, has witnessed the cycle several times with his own club, Kelowna Flying Solo Toastmasters. Toastmasters are social. Toastmasters are social after all; we are striving to hone our communication skills. Then along comes social media and online tools that can increase not only our reach but our productivity. Social media is here to stay. Social media is here to stay at least until the next big thing comes along. Keeping up with what's new, what's hot, and what's not could easily turn into a full-time job. And it has for many people as they have created a new career as Social Media Managers. The Power of Promotion: Online Marketing For Toastmasters Club Growth, 2nd Edition by Rae Stonehouse, flattens the learning curve for anyone who wants to maximize their time spent online without turning it into a full-time job. Rae believes that Toastmasters clubs should be run like businesses and social media platforms provide promotional and marketing opportunities that can help spread the word about one of the world's best kept secrets: Toastmasters. In this easy-to-read how-to manual, Rae shares his experience with using social media to draw attention to his Toastmasters club and to convert visitors to social media properties to actually visit his club and to join. Sometimes it has worked, sometimes not. This edition has been updated for 2023. Women Comedians in the Digital Age Alex

Symons, 2022-12-30 This book offers a thorough examination of digital work by women comedians in the US, exploring their use of digital media to perform jokes, engage with fans, remake their reputations, and become political activists. This book argues that despite its many adverse effects, digital work is changing comedy, empowering women to create new comic forms and negotiate the contentious political climate incited by former President Donald J. Trump. Chapters are focused on video podcasting TikTok Twitter Instagram YouTube and the streaming platform Netflix each containing informative case studies on significant women comedians who use them including Sarah Silverman Amy Schumer Leslie Jones Mindy Kaling Colleen Ballinger Lilly Singh Ms Pat Whitney Cummings Issa Rae and others To understand their strategies this book examines the popularity of their digital content their career outcomes in television and film as well as the ups and downs of their critical reputations in magazines newspapers the trade press and with their participatory audiences online This insightful and timely work will appeal to scholars researching and teaching in the areas of media studies digital communication gender studies and performance
