Renew The Face Of The Earth:

Leading Intercessions John Pritchard, 2005-08 Leading Intercessions is a resource for individuals and groups involved in the important task of leading prayers in public worship. This user friendly handbook covers a rich and broad spectrum from traditional services to worship with children and young people to group prayer to personal devotions. Each section begins with practical principles and is filled with easy to use ideas for ways to improve presentation and creative suggestions for enlivening the prayers. Sample prayers are included as well as material for seasons, major festivals and special events. Leading Intercessions is a how to book on preparing intercessions for many communal situations, how to write them and then how to present them in church. With a variety of activities for getting children and adults to pray, it includes material for preparing intercessions for the full year. This handbook will stimulate the reader into his or her own explorations of intercession. Leading Intercessions is divided into five sections with sample prayers in each section. Sections are: Intercessions in Mainstream Worship, Intercessions at Festivals and Special Occasions, Intercessions in Informal Worship and Small Groups, Intercessions with Children and Young People, and Personal Intercessions. Right Reverend John Pritchard is the Anglican bishop of Jarrow. He was archdeacon of Canterbury and before that warden of Cranmer Hall, Durham. He has served in parishes in Birmingham and Taunton and has been diocesan youth officer for the Bath and Wells Dioceses. Touching the Altar Carol M. Bechtel, 2008-01-14 What does it mean to be in the presence of God's holiness? How can it affect us, whether we seek it out or stumble upon it? Can it truly change our very reality to encounter it? The essayists in this volume explore these questions at the heart of Christian worship, considering the oft neglected Old Testament as essential to understand our purpose in worship. Following the structure of the Hebrew canon, beginning with the Pentateuch, moving through to the Psalms, then wisdom literature, each chapter considers a separate aspect of worship, from theater to the Sabbath to sacred space, offering new inspiration. In the final essay, Carol Bechtel rereads the book of Job through the lens of our human limitations, as opposed to the usual theme of theodicy, with compelling applications for both life and worship. Each of these essays concludes with two appropriately themed hymns and a For Further Reading list. Five of the seven contain sidebars that illustrate and enrich key points. Evocative woodcut artwork by Margaret Adams Parker provides a striking backdrop to the text. Taken together, these essays testify powerfully to the belief that the Old Testament is not only valuable but also essential to whole and fully foundational preaching and worship. Written primarily by Old Testament professors, Touching the Altar will make an engaging supplemental text for introductory or elective Old Testament courses and will also go far toward providing deeper worship for any Christian. Contributors: Carol M. Bechtel, Thomas A. Boogaart, Corrine L. Carvalho, Ellen F. Davis, J. Clinton McCann Jr., Dennis T. Olson, Margaret Adams Parker, John D. Witvliet. Living Liturgy Joyce Ann Zimmerman, Christopher W. Conlon, 2009 Homilies for Weekdays, Solemnities, Feasts and Memorials is a requested and welcome addition to the first two volumes of weekday homilies by Father Don Talafous, OSB.
