Rudolf Steiner's ideas in practice

Rudolf Steiner's ideas in practice
Renewing Christianity

For Rudolf Steiner, Christ's incarnation and his death on Golgotha were crucial events in earthly and cosmic history. Ultimately, he said, would inspire in those towards a spiritual awareness of Christ's presence in creation and the individual would no longer need intermediated religious beliefs.

In this concise introduction to Steiner's ideas the author also describes The Christian Community which Steiner helped to establish as a movement for Christian renewal.

Rudolf Steiner was one of the great original thinkers of the twentieth century. His writings cover a wide range of subjects and he made valuable and influential contributions in many fields. Each of the books in this series serves as an introduction to his ideas on a particular topic, showing how they are being applied in practice today.

James H. Hinde is a priest in The Christian Community in Western Massachusetts.

Other titles in the series:

Renewing Christianity Christopher M. Bellitto, 2001 This book follows the tide of reform and renewal in Church history and demonstrates that reform has always been an essential element of Christianity Indeed Christopher Bellitto emphasizes that reform should not be perceived as limited to the Reformation or Vatican II As one learns from the author's analysis the history of Christianity is little other than the history of reform This sweeping assessment of Church history is both remarkable and deep but is also highly readable Bellitto begins with an introduction to the subject of reform and follows that with chapters on the patristic period and Carolingian Renaissance the High Middle Ages 1050 1300 Avignon to Trent From Trent to Modernity and Vatican II He ends with a conclusion that draws together the recurring themes and patterns of reform activity in the Church In short this is a unique book on the subject of Church reform Renewing Christianity is useful to both scholars and non academics alike It is written in a learnedly popular style and would appeal to clergy seminarians academics graduate students or anyone interested in Church reform and renewal Church history or historical theology

Renewing Christianity James H. Hindes, 1995-06 For Rudolf Steiner Christ's Incarnation and death on Golgotha were central events in earthly and cosmic history Humankind he said would evolve in time toward a spiritual awareness of Christ's presence in creation and the individual would no longer need institutionalized religious beliefs In this concise introduction to Steiner's ideas the author also describes the Christian Community which Steiner helped to establish as a movement for Christian renewal The Christian Community also called the Movement for Religious Renewal is an independent church founded in 1922 in Switzerland with the help of Rudolf Steiner The first American Congregation was founded in New York City in 1948 Further information can be found at the Christian Community website www.thechristiancommunity.org This is not only one of the best introductions to the Christian Community and its history but an excellent introduction to the whole of Rudolf Steiner's worldview known as spiritual science or Anthroposophy Principles of Christianity James Stuart, 1888
