a hundred years from his own time into a bewildering future first the decadent semicolonized late Qing China of the author's own time and later an astonishing high tech Confucian utopia called the Realm of Civilization Baoyu is equally disoriented in both places in China proper he is distressed by the growth of foreign influence and weakening of the traditional moral code in favor of capitalist consumerism and selfish gain in the Realm of Civilization he is amazed by everything he encounters from flying cars and ingenious medical technologies to the perfectly moral populace Seen through Baoyu's eyes the Realm is everything that late Qing China has failed to be and offers a hopeful vision of what it might yet become This quick paced romp deftly highlights some of the major preoccupations of the tumultuous final decade of China's last dynasty while raising important existential questions about China's future Enlivened by author Wu Jianren's vivid imagination and wry sense of humor this playful satirical adventure is essential reading for lovers of science fiction and Chinese literature in translation
