Folklore Studies in India: Critical Regional Responses Sahdev Luhar, 2023-02-25 Folklore Studies in India Critical Regional Responses is an interesting compilation of twenty eight critical articles on the beginning of folklore studies in the different parts of India In the absence of a book that could map the history of Indian folklore studies single handedly this book can be deemed as the first of its kind to feature the historical development of folklore studies in the different states of India This book succinctly introduces the readers to the folk culture folk arts and folk genres of a particular region and to the different aspects of folkloristic researches carried out in that region Britain and Tibet 1765-1947 Julie G. Marshall, 2005 This bibliography is a record of British relations with Tibet in the period 1765 to 1947 As such it also involves British relations with Russia and China and with the Himalayan states of Ladakh Lahul and Spiti Kumaon and Garhwal Nepal Sikkim Bhutan and Assam in so far as British policy towards these states was affected by her desire to establish relations with Tibet It also covers a subject of some importance in contemporary diplomacy It was the legacy of unresolved problems concerning Tibet and its borders bequeathed to India by Britain in 1947 which led to border disputes and ultimately to war between India and China in 1962 These borders are still in dispute today It also provides background information to Tibet's claims to independence an issue of current importance The work is divided into a number of sections and subsections based on chronology geography and events The introductions to each of the sections provide a condensed and informative history of the period and place the books and article in their historical context Most entries are also annotated This work is therefore both a history and a bibliography of the subject and provides a rapid entry into a complex area for scholars in the fields of international relations and military history as well as Asian history The Westminster Review ,1889 Global Histories, Imperial Commodities, Local Interactions Jonathan Curry-Machado, 2013-07-12 The papers presented in this collection offer a wide range of cases from Asia Africa and the Americas and broadly cover the last two centuries in which commodities have led to the consolidation of a globalised economy and society forging this out of distinctive local experiences of cultivation and production and regional circuits of trade Reports on the Schemes of the Church of Scotland Church of Scotland.
