Grady, 2014-01-14 This book surveys the appearances of righteous heathens or virtuous pagans in travel literature chronicles romances and sermons as well as in the work of Langland Chaucer and Gower Grady also illustrates the way these figures have been used to explore a variety of historical cultural and formal literary issues Antimercantilism in Late Medieval English Literature R. Ladd, 2010-10-18 This study explores the relationship between ideology and subjectivity in late medieval literature documenting the trajectory of antimercantile ideology against major developments in economic theory and practice in the Mindful Spirit in Late Medieval Literature Bonnie Wheeler, 2016-04-30 In what varieties of ways is late later Middle Ages medieval literature inflected by spiritual insight and desires What weaves of literary cloth especially suit religious insight In this collection dedicated to Elizabeth D Kirk Emeritus Professor of English at Brown University several renowned scholars assess those related issues in a range of Medieval texts Miracles and Wonders in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Period Albrecht Classen, 2025-10-20 Despite the assumption that we live today in a rather rationalist and mechanized world there remain many aspects that neither medicine nor physics can fully explain The Catholic Church continues to pronounce individuals as saints because scientifically confirmed miracles are associated with them If we want to gain a solid understanding of the pre modern history of mentality emotions and everyday culture it proves to be highly revealing to examine what miracles and wonders had meant at that time both in the theological and medical field in the visual arts and literature As a matter of fact people both in the East and in the West have consistently flocked to pilgrimage sites all over the world in the hope that a miracle might happen and solve issues for them The contributors to this volume based on a symposium at the University of Arizona May 2024 approach this critically important topic from many different perspectives taking us from the early Middle Ages to the early modern age examining hagiographical medical literary and alchemical texts discussing both miracles and wonders as relevant themes in the public discourses Both the passage through Inferno and Purgatorio as the crucial pathway toward Paradiso and the experience of women s miraculous conception are identified as deeply impactful for the pre modern world and this both in Christian and Muslim cultures Studying miracles and wonders through a kaleidoscope of different materials and concepts makes it possible to gain a closer understanding of people s mindsets power structures and the debate between medicine and religion These topics were also greatly important in other cultures as several papers on Arabic medieval literature indicate Further pursuing this global issue we recognize easily that the separation line between the Middle Ages and the early modern period is only a modern construct and often not that helpful because the discourse on miracles and wonders has continued and influences even us today Reading in Later Medieval England Mary C. Flannery, 2016-04-08 We are living in an age in which the relationship between reading and space is evolving swiftly Cutting edge technologies and developments in the publication and consumption of literature continue to uncover new physical electronic and virtual contexts in which reading can take place In comparison with the accessibility that has accompanied these developments the medieval reading experience may initially seem limited and restrictive available only to a literate few or to their listeners yet attention to the spaces in which medieval reading habits can be traced reveals a far more vibrant picture in which different kinds of spaces provided opportunities for a wide range of interactions with and contributions to the texts being read Drawing on a rich variety of material this collection of essays demonstrates that the spaces in which reading took place or in which reading could take place in later medieval England directly influenced how and why reading happened Cultural Diversity in the British Middle Ages Jeffrey Jerome Cohen, 2008 The contributors to this volume seek moments of cultural admixture and heterogeneity within texts that have often been assumed to belong to a single national canon discovering moments when familiar and bounded space erupt into unexpected diversity and infinite realms Jacket Late Medieval Jewish Identities Carmen Caballero-Navas, Maria Esperanza Alfonso, 2010-11-15 Medieval Iberia offers one of the few examples of coexistence over an extended period of time between Jews Muslims and Christians in pre modern Europe Taking the Jewish community as a focal point this book thoroughly explores the various borders geographical divides religious affiliations gender boundaries genre divisions that ruled the lives and intellectual production of late medieval Jews By shedding new light on the ways in which these boundaries generated the Jewish communities multiple overlapping and conflicting identities this book breaks new ground in the study of Medieval Romance and the Construction of Heterosexuality L. cultural exchange in the Middle Ages Sylvester, 2008-07-21 This book interrogates our ideas about heterosexuality through examination of medieval romance narratives Familiar configurations of romantic fiction such as male desire overwhelming feminine reluctance and the aloof masculine hero undone by love derive from this period This book tests current theories of language and desire through stylistic analysis examining transitivity choices and speech acts in sexual encounters and conversations in medieval romances In the context of current preoccupations with gender and sexuality and consent in rape cases this study is of interest to scholars investigating language and sexuality as well as those researching and teaching medieval literature and culture Gender and Power in Medieval Exegesis Theresa Tinkle, 2010-09-15 Gender and Power in Medieval Exegesis analyzes

Gender and Power in Medieval Exegesis Theresa Tinkle,2010-09-15 Gender and Power in Medieval Exegesis analyzes the nexus of gender and power in biblical commentaries from the fifth to the fifteenth century focusing on crucial moments in the development of exegesis The argument pursues the literary trope of the woman on top through major literary exegetical works Augustine's Confessions Jerome's Against Jovinian the Fleury Slaughter of Innocents and Chaucer's Wife of Bath's Prologue Theresa Tinkle reveals how the authoritative woman in these works can signify either a troubling disruption of ordained social order or an admirable inversion of order that sets the Church apart from dominant culture Establishing a feminist historicist perspective this book situates exegesis in history and exposes the cultural pressures behind exegetes Studies in the Age of Chaucer David Matthews, 2011-01-17 Studies in the Age of Chaucer is the annual yearbook of the New Chaucer Society publishing articles on the writing of Chaucer and his contemporaries their antecedents and successors and their intellectual and social contexts More generally articles explore the culture and writing of later medieval Britain 1200 1500 Each SAC volume also includes an annotated bibliography and reviews of Chaucer Medieval Literature and Postcolonial Studies Lisa Lampert-Weissig, 2010 Medieval Literature and related publications Postcolonial Studies provides a comprehensive introduction to the field of postcolonial medieval studies and examines the The Legend of Charlemagne in the Middle historical connections between postcolonial studies and medieval studies Ages Matthew Gabriele, Jace Stuckey, 2008-09-15 These essays take advantage of a new exciting trend towards interdisciplinary research on the Charlemagne legend Written by historians art historians and literary scholars these essays focus on the multifaceted ways the Charlemagne legend functioned in the Middle Ages and how central the shared if nonetheless fictional memory of the great Frankish ruler was to the medieval West A gateway to new research on memory crusading apocalyptic expectation Carolingian historiography and medieval kingship the contributors demonstrate the fuzzy line separating fact and fiction in the Middle Ages Communal Discord, Child Abduction, and Rape in the Later Middle Ages P. J. P. Goldberg, 2008-12-12 Did medieval women have the power to choose This is a question at the heart of this book which explores three court cases from Yorkshire in the decades after the Black Death Alice de Rouclif was a child heiress made to marry the illegitimate son of the local abbot and then abducted by her feudal superior Agnes Grantham was a successful businesswoman ambushed and assaulted in a forest whilst on her way to dine with the Master of St Leonard s Hospital Alice Brathwell was a respectable widow who attracted the attentions of a supposedly aristocratic comman These are their stories Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature Modern Humanities Research Association, 2007 Includes both books and articles The Claims of Poverty Kate Crassons, 2010 Crasson examines the status of poverty in late medieval England as both a sacred imitation of Christ and a social stigma Through A Classical Eve Andrew Galloway, R.F.
