Serving Families of Adult Offenders James W. Mustin, Donna D'Arville, 2004-01-01 This directory was prepared by the Family and Corrections Network to update the Directory of Programs Serving Families of Adult Offenders Oct 1998 This revised directory lists 500 programs in the U S and Canada offering services specifically for families of adult offenders Entries were identified by sending survey forms to directors of departments of corrections in the U S to programs listed in the 1998 directory and to other programs known to the Family and Corrections Network Includes telephone address e mail web site contacts area served parent org date established and a brief summary of the services provided Annual Program Plan for Fiscal Year ... National Institute of Corrections (U.S.), 1992 Serving Families of Adult Offenders, 2002 Children with Parents in Prison Creasie Hairston, 2017-09-04 Adults are being incarcerated in the United States at an ever escalating rate and child welfare professionals are encountering growing numbers of children who have parents in prison Current estimates indicate that as many as 1 5 million children have an incarcerated parent many thousands of others have experienced the incarceration of a parent at some point in their lives These vulnerable children face unique difficulties and their growing numbers and special needs demand attention Existing literature indicates that children whose parents are incarcerated experience a variety of negative consequences particularly in terms of their emotional health and well being They also may have difficult interactions or limited contact with their parents There are also issues connected with their physical care and child custody The many challenges facing the child welfare system as it attempts to work with this population are explored in Children with Parents in Prison Topics covered include Supporting Families and Children of Mothers in Jail Meeting the Challenge of Permanency Planning for Children with Incarcerated Mothers The Impact of Changing Public Policy on Relatives Caring for Children with Incarcerated Parents Legal Issues and Recommendations Facilitating Parent Child Contact in Correctional Settings Earning Trust from Youths with None to Spare Developing Quality Services for Offenders and Families and in closing Understanding the Forces that Influence Incarcerated Fathers Relationships with Their Children Children and families have long struggled with the difficulties created when a parent goes to prison What is new is the magnitude of the problem This volume calls for increased public awareness of the impact of parental incarceration on children Its goal is to stimulate discussion about how to best meet the special needs of these children and families and how to provide a resource for the child welfare community as it responds to Human Care Services Directory of Metropolitan Chicago, 1994 Working with Children and Families Separated by Incarceration Lois Wright, Cynthia Seymour, 2000 More than 1 6 million children in this country have a parent in prison and a much larger number have experienced the incarceration of a parent at some point in their lives As a result these children endure traumatic separations from their parents and erratic shifts from one caregiver to another This handbook discusses the effects of parental incarceration and the community services that should be available to support and preserve families It also outlines child welfare practice needs and provides practical suggestions in areas such as child protection temporary placement in out of home care permanency planning and family reunification News and Notes Correctional Education Association (U.S.),2002 Directory of Programs Serving Families of Adult Offenders James W. Mustin,Stephanie Halfacre,Family and Corrections Network,National Institute of Corrections (U.S.),1998 Editorial Research Reports, 1987 ,1988-02 House and Senate Documents of the ... Session Virginia. General Assembly,1993 Volumes for some years include documents for extra or special sessions House and Senate Documents Virginia. General Assembly,1993 Directory of Programs Serving Families of Adult Offenders ,1989 Unheard Voices Michigan Women's Commission,1993 What I Wish I'd Learned in Law School Debra Ratterman Baker,ABA Center on Children and the Law,1997 Loving Through Bars Cynthia Martone,2005 Provides a close up examination of the instability and uncertainty that plague the children of prisoners in a collection of personal anecdotal accounts that chronicle their attempts to cope with the unique challenges in their lives ABA Child Law Practice ,1996 Serving Children and Families of Adult Offenders James W. Mustin,Donna D'Arville,National Institute of Corrections (U.S.),2005 A Vision of Service Geraldine Anthony,1997 A Vision of Service a celebration of the Golden Jubilee of a Federation of thirteen congregations of North American Sisters and Daughters of Charity presents a unique picture of the post modern nun and her non traditional ministries Sr Anthony describes the work of the Sisters of Charity today who are lawyers doctors theologians advocates parish pastors prison chaplains college presidents journalists professors scientists ecologists political advisors and interpreters for the deaf There are sisters who are members of labor relations boards director of Marriage Tribunals CEOs of large hospitals and social work centers such as Covenant House in New York They are marriage counselors and workers with AIDS victims with battered wives abused children and severely handicapped children Each congregation has found a unique way of expressing the values vision and spirit of St Vincent de Paul Louise de Marillac and St Elizabeth Ann Seton Their diverse story is the story of the empowerment of ministry within the Church today The U.S. Federal Prison System Mary Bosworth,2002 Despite the fact that 160 000 people are locked up in our federal correctional facilities practical information about the federal prison system remains difficult to locate While some information may be found scattered on the Internet in directions given at court or through shared personal experience there is no single source available that is a collection of all available information The U S Federal Prison System is the first comprehensive book to include official prison policies first person accounts from prisoners and information about each federal facility Now published in paperback The U S Federal Prison System is perfect for classroom use as it interweaves the academic study of incarceration with a survey of government reports on prison policy Organized into two parts this book is an accessible text on the current U S federal prison system Part I is an introduction to federal prison facilities including key statistics and views from the inside provided by inmates of federal prisons Part II is a look at the Federal Bureau of Prisons policies on various matters such as discipline education visits and religious practices Key Features A thorough overview of both prison policies and the federal facilities themselves with photos of selected prisons Part II consistently organizes historical background information followed by an account of current policies with specific federal rules and regulations governing the policies to conclude each topical discussion Appendix A is the first comprehensive listing of every Federal prison in the U S complete with facility details and service information Commentary from prisoners first person accounts take the reader behind the walls The U S Federal Prison System is an ideal text for students studying corrections and penology in Criminal Justice Criminology Law Social Work Psychology and Sociology This book is also an excellent resource for families of inmates researchers and the general public Fathers Returning Home from Prison Guy Stanley Meloy, 2000
