Roles and Responsibilities of Libraries in Increasing Consumer Health Literacy and Reducing Health

Disparities Beth St. Jean, Gagan Jindal, Yuting Liao, Paul T. Jaeger, 2020-11-30 This volume brings together librarians LIS students educators and researchers to discuss the many ways that information professionals and libraries serve as agents of securing health information justice      How Public Libraries Build Sustainable Communities in the 21st Century Kaurri C. Williams-Cockfield, Bharat Mehra, 2023-09-08 Public libraries through their mission vision and position in the community play a significant part in building community sustainability and are already positioned to serve as a backbone support organization for collective impact initiatives      Whole Person Librarianship Sara K. Zettervall, Mary C. Nienow, 2019-08-14 Whole Person Librarianship guides librarians through the practical process of facilitating connections among libraries social workers and social services explains why those connections are important and puts them in the context of a national movement Collaboration between libraries and social workers is an exploding trend that will continue to be relevant to the future of public and academic libraries Whole Person Librarianship incorporates practical examples with insights from librarians and social workers The result is a new vision of library services The authors provide multiple examples of how public and academic librarians are connecting their patrons with social services They explore skills and techniques librarians can learn from social workers such as how to set healthy boundaries and work with patrons experiencing homelessness they also offer ideas for how librarians can self educate on these topics The book additionally provides insights for social work partners on how they can benefit from working with librarians While librarians and social workers share social justice motivations their methods are complementary and yet still distinct librarians do not have to become social workers Librarian readers will come away with many practical ideas for collaboration as well as the ability to explain why collaboration with social workers is important for the future of librarianship      Creating a Person-Centered Library Elizabeth A. Wahler, Sarah C. Johnson, 2023-12-28 Creating a Person Centered Library provides a comprehensive overview of various services programs and collaborations to help libraries serve high needs patrons as well as strategies for supporting staff working with these individuals While public libraries are struggling to address growing numbers of high needs patrons experiencing homelessness food insecurity mental health problems substance abuse and poverty related needs this book will help librarians build or contribute to library services that will best address patrons psychosocial needs The authors experienced in both library and social work begin by providing an overview of patrons psychosocial needs structural and societal reasons for the shift in these needs and how these changes impact libraries and library staff Chapters focus on best practices for libraries providing person centered services and share lessons learned including information about special considerations for certain patron populations that might be served by individual libraries The book concludes with information about how library organizations can support public library staff Librarians and library students who are concerned about both patrons and library staff will find the practical advice in this book invaluable The Interpersonal Process in Generic Social Work Ron Baker,1976 Textbook GCSE Health and Social Care for Edexcel Elizabeth Haworth,Carol Forshaw,Neil Moonie,2002 This book meets all the assessment requirements of the Edexcel specification however it is also suitable for students following other specifications Gcse Health & Social Care OCR Elizabeth Haworth,Carol Forshaw,Neil Moonie,2002-11-06 This book meets all the assessment requirements of the OCR specification however it is also suitable for students following other specifications Positions in Social Work Edward Thomas Devine,Mary Van Kleeck,1916 Paraprofessional and Nonprofessional Staff in Special Libraries Elin B.
