Institution Howard Harris, Gayathri Wijesinghe, Stephen McKenzie, 2012-12-14 This book addresses the question how can institutions develop and maintain a good purpose And how can managers contribute to this endeavour Twelve contributions explore this question using MacIntyrean inquiry as a basis for exploring four main themes Can management be considered a practice in the MacIntyrean sense What is the role of specific virtues in the development of a virtuous institution What are management vices and what are the conditions in which they flourish And can we use MacIntyrean ideas to consider the management of all forms of institutions The volume is an international and multidisciplinary collection with contributions from well known writers in the field of management ethics and innovative contributions that use MacIntyrean inquiry as a lens to examine fields such as hospitality user generated music content and social sustainability The papers are unified by their concern for the achievement of organizational excellence and integrity through ethical management Unlike single author texts this edited volume brings together multiple perspectives on the topic of virtue ethics in management In doing so it explores the topic both more deeply and more widely than a single author can do Because of its breadth this book has the potential to become a turn to research tool for those interested in virtue theory s relevance to other academic interests such as organizational behavior including motivation theory and social psychology literature contemporary social issue criticism and business management Editors Harris Wijesinghe and McKenzie have crafted a tight slim and thematically consistent volume that will be indispensable to scholars and students with twin interests in business and virtue ethics In particular those working with MacIntyre s ideas will find the thorough and complimentary explorations and applications of his ideas to serve overall as a cornerstone for their own work Brenden E Kendall 2014 Harris H Wijesinghe G McKenzie S Eds 2013 The Heart of the Good Institution Virtue Ethics as a Framework for Responsible Management Dordrecht The Netherlands Springer in Michael Schwartz Howard Harris ed Achieving Ethical Excellence Research in Ethical Issues in Organizations Volume 12 Emerald Group Publishing Limited pp 155 161 The Bliss Experiment (with embedded videos) Sean as a website for everyday video sharing in 2005 YouTube has become one of the world's most powerful digital media platforms Originally published in 2009 when YouTube was only four years old this book was the first to systematically investigate its cultural impacts and politics highlighting the productive tensions between its amateur community rhetoric and its commercial media logics Since then YouTube has grown as a platform and matured as a company Its business model is built on coordinating the interests of and extracting value from its content creators audiences advertisers and media partners in a commercial setting where YouTube now competes with other powerful social media and streaming television platforms Meanwhile YouTube's diverse communities of content creators who developed the platform's most distinctive cultural forms and genres have strong ideas and interests of their own While preserving the original edition's forensic analysis of YouTube's early popular culture and uses this fully revised and updated edition weaves fresh examples updated theoretical perspectives and comparative historical insights throughout each of its six chapters Burgess and Green show how over its more than a decade of existence YouTube's dual logics of commerciality and community have persisted generating new genres of popular culture new professional identities and business models for the media industries and giving rise to ongoing platform governance challenges The book is essential reading for anyone interested in the contemporary and future implications of digital media platforms and will be particularly valuable for students and scholars in media communication and cultural studies
