Pevsner Architectural Guides Pembrokeshi:

Pembrokeshire Thomas Lloyd, Julian Orbach, Robert Scourfield, Richard Scourfield, 2004-01-01 This authoritative guide to the southwest corner of Wales by three local experts encompasses a wide sweep of history from the rugged prehistoric remains that stud the distinctive windswept landscape overlooking the Atlantic to distinguished recent buildings that respond imaginatively to their natural setting The comprehensive gazetteer encompasses the great cathedral of St David's and its Bishop's Palace the numerous churches and the magnificent Norman castles that reflect the turbulent medieval past It gives attention also to the lesser known delights of Welsh chapels both simple rural and sophisticated Victorian examples in all their wayward variety and provides detailed accounts of a rewarding range of towns including the county town Haverfordwest the attractively unspoilt Regency resort of Tenby and Milford Haven and Pembroke Dock with their important naval history An introduction with valuable specialist contributions sets the buildings in context The Country Houses of Shropshire Gareth Williams, 2021 A gazetteer of the many fine Shropshire country houses which covers the architecture the owners family history and the social and economic circumstances that affected them Shropshire is the largest English inland county and has a wide variety of important landed country houses with owners from diverse social groups with links to trade in Liverpool Manchester and London as well as the local gentry This book is not simply about the houses they built but also about the people who lived in them and the context in which the houses are set The architecture is of course fully covered What is distinctive about the author's approach is that he treats the histories of the families their artistic tastes and their estates as an integral part of the character of each house Country houses can serve as a barometer of national tastes and of the social and economic times in which they were built The work includes reference to the important sporting associations fine and decorative art collections and to important guests and social networks Unlike most architectural guides this aims at a wider readership and will be an important resource for social historians genealogists and local historians The Country Houses of Shropshire considers the history of 347 identified houses of varying importance those with a significant or influential history are given a main entry of up to 6000 words whilst lesser houses are treated with an entry of less than 1000 words All houses have footnoted entries enabling the reader to refer directly to source and to undertake further research themselves rtant guests and social networks Unlike most architectural guides this aims at a wider readership and will be an important resource for social historians genealogists and local historians The Country Houses of Shropshire considers the history of 347 identified houses of varying importance those with a significant or influential history are given a main entry of up to 6000 words whilst lesser houses are treated with an entry of less than 1000 words All houses have footnoted entries enabling the reader to refer directly to source and to undertake further research themselves rtant guests and social networks Unlike most architectural guides this aims at a wider readership and will be an important resource for social historians genealogists and local historians The Country Houses of Shropshire considers the history of 347 identified houses of varying importance those with a significant or influential history are given a main entry of up to 6000 words whilst lesser houses are treated with an entry of less than 1000 words All houses have footnoted entries enabling the reader to refer directly to source and to undertake further research themselves f less than 1000 words All houses have footnoted entries enabling the reader to refer directly to source and to undertake further research themselves

Carmarthenshire and Ceredigion Thomas Lloyd, Julian Orbach, Robert Scourfield, 2006-01-01 This sixth volume of the Buildings of Wales series covers two counties Carmarthenshire and Ceredigion formerly Cardiganshire in the south west of Wales Like the same authors Pembrokeshire the volume covers an architecture still little known hut encompassing a sweep from prehistoric chambered tombs to the high technology of the world s largest single span glasshouse The Buildings of Wales founded by Sir Nikolaus Pevsner 1902 83 will when complete document and describe the architecture of the Principality in seven regional volumes complementing the sister series on England Ireland and Scotland In each one a gazetteer details all buildings of significance from megalithic tombs and Iron Age hill forts via grand seventeenth century houses to Victorian domestic extravaganzas great industrial centres and monumental public buildings The countryside is explored to reveal churches chapels farmhouses and traces of early industry The gazetteer is complemented by an introduction which explains the broader context and builds a complete picture of the country s architectural identity Each work is illustrated by numerous maps plans and photographs completed by glossaries and indexes and gives a comprehensive and illuminating survey of the buildings of Wales

The Medieval Castles of Wales John R. Kenyon, 2010-10-15 The purpose of the book is to give visitors to the medieval castles of Wales a concise but informative description of the main publicly accessible sites in a convenient format An introductory chapter outlines the development of castle architecture in Britain drawing on Welsh examples with a number of box features that elaborate more fully on particular aspects such as gatehouses or key personalities such as Llywelyn Fawr Five chapters form a regionally based gazetteer of the castles described Each entry is prefaced with a key to arrangements at each castle such as whether there is an entry charge The know history of any given site is then summarized and this is then followed by the core of each entry namely the description of the visible remains to enable visitors to navigate their way around Some of the descriptions of the larger sites are accompanied by plans A final chapter provides a brief overview of castle like buildings dating from the seventeenth century onwards and this is followed by a guide to further reading

Jesus College, Oxford, 2004 W.A.S. Benson Ian Hamerton, 2005 On the 150th anniversary of his birth this book is devoted to the life and work of the designer and architect William Arthur Smith Benson 1854 1924 Prophecy, Fate and Memory in the Early Medieval Celtic World

Professor Jonathan Wooding, 2020-03-02 Prophecy Fate and Memory in the Early and Medieval Celtic World brings together a collection of studies that closely explore aspects of culture and history of Celtic speaking nations Non narrative sources and cross disciplinary approaches shed new light on traditional questions concerning commemoration sources of political authority and the nature of religious identity Leading scholars and early career researchers bring to bear hermeneutics from studies of religion and literary criticism alongside more traditional philological and historical methodologies All the studies in this book bring to their particular tasks an acknowledgement of the importance of religion in the worldview of antiquity and the Middle Ages Their approaches reflect a critical turn in Celtic studies that has proved immensely productive across the last two decades The Incredibly Indispensable Web Directory Clive Zietman, Bettina Zietman, 2003 The fourth edition of this Web directory is updated and extended to include 10 000 entries Incredibly Indispensable Web Directory is designed to save hours of searching on the Internet and help individuals to go straight to their desired site without using search engines It lists and categorises sites from art galleries to zoos The Archaeological Journal ,2005 Choice ,2004
Archaeologia Cambrensis ,2005 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Pevsner Architectural Guides Buildings Books Trust, 1998 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003 The Architects' Journal ,2004-07 The Spectator ,2004 Pembrokeshire ,1780 The Buildings of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales Nikolaus Pevsner, Penguin Collectors' Society Staff, Susie Harries, Ernst Ullmann, 2012 Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1975 Piper's Places Richard Ingrams, John Piper, 1983 For more than sixty years John Piper has painted drawn photographed and recorded his impressions of the landscapes and buildings of the British Isles His interest in the natural order has ranged from the gentle adapted landscape of Romney Marsh to the rocky wilderness of Snowdonia His passion for buildings extends from the palladian country house to the cottage built in the vernacular from an ornate Somerset church tower to the dusty clutter of a vestry This association with topographical subjects has been sustained by many years work on the Shell Guides to the English and Welsh counties The Guides of which he was co editor with John Betjeman and subsequently sole editor financed as Anthony West has put it an exploration and penetration of the English and Welsh scene of an intensity and range which few artists have been able to undertake This book presents for the first time in one volume the range of John Piper's topographical work in the British Isles Richard Ingrams who has walked over and written about much of the country recorded by Piper himself tells the story with engaging and very appropriate informality of the latter's life with the landscape natural and created of Britain the influences on this aspect of his work and the people who have joined him in it including John Betjeman J M Richards and Geoffrey Grigson The text is enhanced by Piper's own reflections some occasioned by the book itself others drawn from working notebooks diaries and articles The illustrations reproduce aquatints drawings collages oil paintings and watercolours Some of these paintings have been specially painted for the book and many more are reproduced here for the first time Piper's Places invites those who read it and look at its illustrations to observe afresh the British landscape through the eyes of the person who has done more to celebrate it than any artist since Turner
