Practical Hermeneutics A Revised Agenda For The Ministry:

Practical Hermeneutics Charles E. Winquist, 1976 New Horizons in Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton, 1992 This book explores the rapidly growing interdisciplinary area of hermeneutics and its significance for biblical studies combining wide fundamental rigorous and creative theoretical concerns with practical questions about how we read biblical texts

Practicing Gospel Edward Farley, 2003-01-01 Practicing Gospel is a collection of four new and eight previously published essays on the subjects of practical theology homiletics and worship Christian education and pastoral care Edward Farley offers a more faithful approach to the tasks of ministry for seminarians and pastors too often tempted to equate pastoral care with popular psychology good preaching with snappy public speaking or Christian education with flashy curriculum By holding theology and practice in an inescapable partnership Farley rightly refocuses the church's life on its proper object and subject a mysterious transforming God A Roman Catholic Theology of Pastoral Care Regis A. Duffy OFM, 2010-05-01

Drawing upon the long history of care in the sacramental mission of the clergy especially since the reforms of Vatican II Father Duffy offers a new model that can stimulate both Catholic and Protestant pastoral care to fresh thinking and imaginative reconstruction The model derives from the catechumenate that lengthy process of study and service which down through the ages has preceded baptism and guided Christian formation Reflecting a judicious use of interdisciplinary insights and praxis theology Father Duffy's vision represents an ecumenical contribution to sharpened focus and strengthened identity for pastoral care and practice Learning in the Way Jeff Astley, 2000 Adult Christian learning is central to the life of the Christian church and is essential for its health outreach and very survival Leading Christian educators here apply the principles of Christian education to adult learning in the churches and present the results and methods of empirical research relevant to the church's ministry of adult Christian education This book will be of interest to all who are concerned for the ways in which adults learn to be Christian The editor Jeff Astley is Director of the North of England Institute for Christian Education and Honorary Professorial Fellow in Practical Theology and Christian Education in the University of Durham Mighty Stories, Dangerous Rituals Herbert Anderson, Edward Foley, 2019-02-01

Shaping our journey into the Divine This moving and enlightening book presents us with a compelling vision of what can happen when we take the opportunity to connect stories and rituals a vision of individuals and communities transformed through a deeper sense of connection to our loved ones our communities and God Herbert Anderson and Edward Foley reveal how when stories and rituals work together they have the potential to be both mighty and dangerous mighty in their ability to lift us up and help us make these connections beyond ourselves and dangerous in challenging us to learn to live with complexity and contradiction They show how much more meaningful a baptism wedding or funeral can be when liturgy is made to include and recognize the personal stories of those involved Suddenly these familiar life cycle rituals are infused with new life as participants become connected in a narrative web linking past and present human and divine Newly created rituals can also help us connect our stories to the divine story giving meaning to what we experience and bringing us closer to God Ministers worship leaders and pastoral caregivers can use this approach to storytelling and ritual to find ways to bring together worship and pastoral care Zeitschrifteninhaltsdienst Theologie ,1977 Colloquy ,1989 Render Unto God James Newton Poling,2012-03-01 What marks principles and values from our study of Jesus can guide our reflections about the church and its witness in a world of economic injustice What kinds of principles ought to be part of an ecclesiology in a world where family violence is epidemic So asks author James Poling in his exploration of the role of faith and religious practice as a resource for those who are economically vulnerable to domestic violence In this groundbreaking work Poling focuses his research on women and children in working class and poor communities of three cultures analyzing the forces that define and sustain economic vulnerability and detailing how such vulnerability affects the daily lives of people within these communities He looks at how the church can function as a source of healing and empowerment for persons who are trapped by domestic violence and economic vulnerability and develops models for prevention of violence and of practical ministry for pastoral care of the victims and perpetrators Teaching and Learning Practice David S. Steward,Rebecca Slough,1989
