Practicing Parenting:

Practicing Atheism Hannah K. Scheidt, 2021 Although many individuals identify as atheists little is understood about the belief system beyond the simple lack of a belief in a higher power Hannah K Scheidt's Practicing Atheism Culture Media and Ritual in the Contemporary Atheist Network unpacks the cultural products both corporate driven and grassroots that carry messages about atheism to examine the complicated relationship between organized atheism and religion

Parenting Coordination Debra Carter, 2011-02-18 Parenting Coordination is a child centered process for conflicted divorced and divorcing parents The Parenting Coordinator PC makes decisions to help high conflict parents who cannot agree to parenting decisions on their own This professional text serves as a training manual for use in all states and provinces which utilize Parenting Coordination addressing the intervention process and the science that supports it The text offers up to date research a practical guide for training service provision and references to relevant research for quality parenting coordination practice Specifically this book describes the integrated model of Parenting Coordination including the Parent Coordinator's professional role responsibilities protocol for service and ethical guidelines Parenting While Ph.D.

Jackie Hoermann-Elliott, Jenna Morton-Aiken, 2025-07-15 Being a PhD student is not easy Navigating the highly competitive world of academia while working hard for little or no pay would be stressful for anyone but it's especially challenging for graduate students who are also parents Featuring contributions from more than forty current and former graduate students raising children Parenting While Ph.D. offers valuable advice for students and administrators Parents will get practical recommendations on both child care and self care learning how to form supportive personal and professional networks while establishing a healthy work life balance The collection also offers thoughtful suggestions on how to make graduate programs less toxic and more inclusive Recognizing that not all graduate students have similar backgrounds or needs Parenting While Ph.D. features a diverse range of viewpoints including queer trans disabled BIPOC immigrant and first generation college students The authors represent a variety of disciplines from the natural and social sciences to the humanities and health care professions Together they share fresh perspectives on the experiences of graduate students with children and offer strategies they can use to navigate the dual pressures of the academy and parenting Singleness and the Church Jana Marguerite

Bennett, 2017-07-21 Singleness is a much overlooked treasure in Christian tradition In these pages Christians single and married alike can rediscover the richness of singleness in its great variety This book offers thought provoking cultural and theological analysis along with voices of single Christian people down through the centuries Something Old,

Something New Ray S. Anderson, 2007-05-15 No one has contributed more substantially to creative orthodox Christian thinking about human nature pastoral theology and counseling over the past 30 years than Ray Anderson His latest book is most welcomed particularly given its focus on the family a pivotal cultural institution of obvious developmental importance which radical postmodernism has attempted to radically redefine but which always warrants a fresh practical Christian approach and critique Eric L Johnson Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Combining the wisdom accumulated in his years as a seminary professor and scholar pastor and counselor Ray Anderson has given us an outstanding book on marriage and family ministry in contemporary culture Even more than this it is the best statement I know of on a theology of the family including the place of family in the church and wider society Hard issues in family life such as violence and abuse homosexuality care for the elderly and death are addressed with a combination of biblical truth and grace Something Old Something New is must reading for all persons involved in ministry today Jack Balswick Fuller Graduate School of Psychology For a Church often despairing of biblically based resources in ministering to the family in our postmodern culture Ray Anderson s twenty fifth book focuses on recovering a theology of the family His seminal volume written with Dennis Guernsey On Being Family Toward a Social Theology of the Family 1985 virtually created the new genre of the theology of the family In Something Old Something New Marriage and Family Ministry in a Postmodern Culture we find the fruit of Anderson s mature reflections that will give hope and guidance to the Church of the twenty first century He discusses marriage and parenting divorce and remarriage singleness and cohabitation and other issues within the diversity and relativity characterized by our postmodern context His decades of experience as a seminary professor and church pastor enable him to articulate a theology of family ministry that offers concrete help for families churches and pastors based on the healing ministry of Christ in today s society Chris Kettler Friends University and Todd Speidell Webb School of Knoxville RAY S ANDERSON 1925 2009 was Senior Professor of Theology and Ministry at Fuller Theological Seminary where he has taught for more than thirty years He is the author of more than twenty five books including The Seasons of Hope Marriage and Family Ministry in a Postmodern Culture The Soul of Ministry Ministry on the Fireline and The Shape of Practical Theology
