Prairie Harvest:

Don Proch Patricia Bovey, 2019-03-01 Since 1970 Manitoba artist Don Proch has built an astonishing body of work evoking a semi mythical Prairie past and an unsettled and unresolved modernity In his complex sculptures and life size masks Proch combines intricate draftsmanship with natural and found materials in surprising and transformative ways Proch grew up in the farmland of north central Manitoba Using the rolling hills and unique parkland vistas of the Asessippi valley he creates a complex personal iconography based on prairie life landscape geology and history The result is what art critic Robert Enright called inexplicable as a miracle Proch first came to the Canadian art world s attention as part of a group of radical young artists in the 1970s intent on shaking up the art establishment His complex installations masks and silkscreen prints quickly established his reputation as an innovator with a unique vision Today he is recognized as one of the most influential visual artists to come out of western Canada and his work can be found in major public and corporate collections including Canada s major art galleries Richly illustrated with more than 80 plates the book includes rare excerpts from Proch s notebooks that reveal his intricate working process Surveying the course of Proch s career curator and art historian Patricia Bovey discusses the themes and influences behind his work and their context within the history of Canadian art
