Regional Policy And Local Governments:

Regional Policy in China Marek Świstak, 2022-12-12 Currently much is said about the directions of development of modern China. However, we still do not know what will determine the expected superpower position of the Middle Kingdom. The book is an attempt to answer questions about China's main development challenges from a regional perspective. China aspires to become the country with the largest economy and development potential. This intention may turn out to be in vain if such significant disparities and development imbalances in the regional system are still present in China. The key to understanding the transformation of contemporary China is to recognize the internal determinants of the functioning of both the state and the economy from a regional perspective. A better understanding of the ways of managing regional development disparities may contribute to a more accurate assessment of the dynamics and directions of China's socio-economic development.

The Coherence of EU Regional Policy John Bachtler, Ivan Turok, 2013-12-16 This book brings together a rich selection of up-to-date practical experience of EU regional policy from across Europe. It provides different perspectives on the design and operation of regional development strategies under the Structural Funds from people closely involved in studying, managing or advising on the process at EU national and regional levels. It therefore offers a more comprehensive and detailed understanding of the structural policies than has been available hitherto. This will prove particularly useful to researchers, practitioners and students interested in European regional policies and processes.

Urban and Regional Policies for Metropolitan Livability David K. Hamilton, 2008-02-12 In today's public policy arena, the regional level is gaining increased attention as problems in policy and service delivery continue to spill over traditional urban government boundaries. This authoritative work focuses on the growing role of regions in addressing and resolving local governance problems. Urban and Regional Policies for Metropolitan Livability provides a concise up-to-date and systematic treatment of the problems and issues involved in urban and regional policy concerns. Each policy chapter is written by a respected expert in the area, and the book covers all the key policy issues that confront contemporary metropolitan areas, including transportation, the environment, affordable housing, crime, employment, poverty, education, and regional governance. Each chapter outlines an issue which is followed by current thinking on problem diagnosis and problem solving, as well as the prognosis for future policy success.

Japan's Road to Pluralism;Transforming Local Communities in the Global Era 田中明彦, Menju Toshihiro,2003-04 Profound changes are being hewn in Japanese communities as historical precedents proven models established guidelines and fixed rules are challenged and more appropriate alternatives sought In this volume seven sociologists show how fundamental structures have been undergoing change at the grassroots level in Japan because of decentralization and globalization Citizen activism in local governance is growing in response to new societal phenomena such as an increase in the foreign resident population and weakened local industries Along with decentralization many local authorities are promoting new measures to actively cope with the impact of globalization and to work with nongovernmental organizations and community businesses to meet the new needs of citizens This volume chronicles the practical and incremental changes in community level governance and how such change has redefined the duties of prefectures and local authorities clearly pointing toward Japan's new road to pluralism Contributors include Kanagawa Koji Research Institute for Regional Policy 21st Century Hyogo Project Association Kashiwazaki Chikako Department of Sociology Sophia University Nakamura Madoka Center for Policy Research Information National Institute for Research Advancement Tamura Shigeru Local Autonomy College Ministry of Home Affairs and Numao Ogura Namiko College of Economics Nihon University Furukawa Shun-ichi is professor of policy and planning sciences at Tsukuba University Menju Toshihiro is senior program officer at the Japan Center for International Exchange Governance of Europe's City Regions Tassilo Herrschel, Peter Newman, 2003-08-27 Governance of Europe's City Regions is a structured overview of current debates on cities and regions It clarifies contemporary debates about regionalism and contributes new insights into the theory of new regionalism
