Religion and Dalit Liberation John C. B. Webster, 2002 Revised version of three lectures on the views of Dr Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar on dalits      Christianity John Chathanatt, 2024-01-08 Published in the Series Encyclopedia of Indian Religions this volume is devoted to Christianity in India where it has had a long presence going back to the time of the apostles of Jesus Christ It focuses on the history origin organizations and local engagements belief system worship practices Rites Rituals Christian life Contributions Spirituality and a few of the main doctrinal and theological items It further examines the earlier phase of the history of Christianity starting with the traditional belief of the arrival of St Thomas in AD 52 moving to the periods of its association with the Chaldean church the Portuguese the Dutch English and so on This volume highlights the missionary activities of persons like St Francis Xavier the creative contributions made to the inter religious dialogue by such people as Roberto de Nobili 1577 1656 and Swami Abhishiktananda 1910 1973 the linguistic and educational contributions of some of the pioneers like the German Jesuit Johanne Ernst Hanxleden known as Arnos Padiri 1681 1732 Herman Gundert 1814 1893 St Elias Kuriakos Chavara 1805 1871 and a fortiori the enormous contributions in the healthcare area throughout the country Caring for and serving the socio economically marginalized ones the peripheralized people formed an integral part of the Christian activity In India as it is done even today This is highlighted very much in the volume It further explores the contact India had with European Christianity showing that European Christianity proved to have wider influence in the Northern part of India unlike India's early episodic encounters with Palestinian and Persian forms of Christianity which had deep influence in the Southern part of India The volume also highlights the inner struggle among the followers resulting even in its division originating at the Synod of Diamper in 1599 manifesting by and large the Church state love and hate relationships In fine in spite of the drawbacks of putting the herculean task of two thousand years of history in eight hundred pages or so this volume gives a rather comprehensive view of Christianity in India especially to those who are unfamiliar with its life and dynamics in the Indian context The wide range of photographs 325 of them especially of the churches revealing the architectural beauty and multiplicity along with the ensample of art and paintings and pilgrimage centers adds to the enrichment of the volume      On the Banks of Ganges Felix Wilfred, 2002      Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion. Volume 4 (2013) , 2013-11-21 Prayer is a phenomenon which seems to be characteristic not only of participants in every religion but also men and women who do not identify with traditional religions It can be practised even by those who do not believe either in a God or transcendent force In this sense therefore we may assert that the prayer is a typically human activity that has accompanied the development of different civilizations over the course of the centuries Both the material issues of concrete daily life as well as more symbolic elements expressed through words gestures body positions and community celebration are brought together in the act of praying      Christian Approaches to Other Faiths Paul Hedges, Alan Race, 2009 A reader designed to work on courses concerned with World Religions Interfaith Dialogue and Interfaith Encounter      Public Theology Gnana Patrick, 2020-04-07 This book situates public theology within the genre of political theology Drawing upon the distinct strands of political theologies identified by Daniel M Bell Jr Gnana Patrick treats public theology as the form of political theology for our contemporary era and takes special care to relate these strands of political theologies to the Indian context thereby opening up the theological horizon for Indian public theology Further Public Theology dwells upon certain prominent features of our contemporary global world and discerns the human need for experiencing transcendence today Taking faith to be the catalyst for this experience of transcendence it points to civil society as the interstice through which faith can be imparted to the contemporary world And it argues for the relevance of public theology for that work      Das Christentum in Ost-, Süd- und Südostasien sowie Australien Friedrich Huber, 2005 In allen asiatischen Ländern gibt es heute christliche Kirchen Manche wie die Thomas Christen in Südindien sind beinahe so alt wie das Christentum selbst Andere wie manche Kirchen in Nordostindien sind erst vor etwa einhundert Jahren entstanden So vielfältig wie ihre Geschichte ist auch ihr gegenwärtiges Erscheinungsbild Der Autor zeichnet die Geschichte der einzelnen Kirchen bis in die Gegenwart nach In jeder Region werden einige Länder ausführlicher dargestellt Indien Indonesien Philippinen China Korea Japan Die übrigen Länder werden im Überblick behandelt Leitfragen bei der Darstellung sind die Verwobenheit von Missions und Kirchengeschichte mit der Profangeschichte die Beziehung der Kirchen und ihrer Theologie zu ihrem kulturellen Kontext und der oft komplizierte Prozess der Selbständigwerdung dieser Kirchen      Zeitschrift für Religionswissenschaft ,2004      Forrester on Christian Ethics and Practical Theology Duncan B. Hindu Christian Apophatic Theology Waters in Vedic Post Vedic Traditions Hindu and Islamic understanding of suffering and hope and the Fundamentalism of the Sangh Parivar Dalit Christians in South India Ashok Kumar Mocherla, 2020-11-16

This ethnographic study of Dalit Lutherans in South India examines how the lived religion of Dalit Christians contests the structures of caste domination in rural Andhra. It shows how the emergence of Dalit Christianity generated new religious ideas, patterns, terrains, rituals, and practices that challenge the traditional notions of caste privilege and impact the politics of the region. It highlights the transforming role of Dalit agency in the development of Christianity, which is largely unexplored in the studies of Christian missions and anthropology of Christianity in India. The book looks at the social history of Christianity, critical events of protest, platforms of community politics, caste ideology, and local politics and interlocking of caste with congregation to provide a constructive critique of the dominant paradigm of the Dalit movement, which often treats Dalits as a homogenous social group. It discusses the pragmatic changes within the politics of Dalit Christianity as viewed from the margins of Indian society and incorporated through engagement with political ideologies from communism to the Ambedkarite movement and religious belief systems from Hinduism to Christianity. This volume at the intersection of religion and caste will be an essential read for students and researchers of Dalit studies, political studies, sociology, sociology of religion, religious studies, social justice, and exclusion studies, and South Asian studies. Local Dalit Christian History
