Religion And Dialectics:

Religion and Dialectics Anthony E. Mansueto, 2002 Religion and Dialectics carries to a new level the critical dialogue between religious belief dialectical thinking and socialist practice which has given birth among other things to the theology of liberation and to a new Marxist sociology of religion On the one hand Anthony Mansueto argues that contrary to the claims of Marx and the dialectical materialist tradition religion is fundamentally a force for human development and social progress and that atheism far from being integral to the socialist project in fact helps to legitimate the market order On the other hand Mansueto sharpens considerably the dialectical critique of Christianity asking just what elements of this tradition are conducive to human development and social progress and which are not Religious Dialectics of Pain and Imagination Bradford T. Stull, 1994-01-01 Explores the possibility of a postmodern liberation rhetoric Stull English Indiana U East uses rhetoric to address the question of how humans can imagine better worlds when surrounded by unspeakable pain Defines terms such as postmodern pain imagination and religion and discusses the theory and practice of four contemporary rhetoricians postmoderns Kenneth Burke and Thomas Merton and liberationists Paulo Freire of Brazil and Oscar Romero of El Salvador Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Dialectics of Religion in the Roman World Francesca Mazzilli, Dies van der Linde, 2021-09-29 Recent scholarship has seen a general turn from separate entities to relations and inclusivity from static and systemic views to a focus on historical processes and fluidity Dialectical thinking fundamentally builds on the entwinement of social interactions inclusivity contradictory relations and historical movement Yet it is underrepresented in current research of Roman society and religion Therefore this volume intends to foreground dialectical thinking as a critical and constructive way to expose and analyse the dynamism diversity and discrepancies of religion in the Roman world Based on critical theories and archaeological epigraphic and literary sources the authors discuss cults ranging from Mars Thincsus and Mithras to Magna Mater and the deified emperors in diverse contexts across the Mediterranean from East to West the Hauran Asia Minor Jerusalem Dalmatia Gaul Britain and Rome Together they give a taste of the potential of dialectical approaches for enhancing our understanding of Roman society and religion Dialectics of Secularization Benedikt XVI. (Papst), Jürgen Habermas, 2006 Two of the worlds great contemporary thinkers theologian and churchman Joseph Ratzinger now Pope Benedict XVI and Jrgen Habermas philosopher and Neo Marxist social critic discuss and debate aspects of secularization and the role of reason and religion in a free society These insightful essays are the result of a remarkable dialogue between the two men sponsored by the Catholic Academy of Bavaria a little over a year before Joseph Ratzinger was elected pope Theology and the Dialectics of History Robert M. Doran, 1990-01-01 Doran draws extensively on the thought of Bernard Lonergan and the work develops Lonergan s methodological insights The religion of philosophy or The unification of knowledge Raymond St. James Perrin, 1885 The Frankfurt School and the Dialectics of Religion Dustin Byrd, 2020-09 In his book The Frankfurt School and the Dialectics of Religion Translating

Critical Faith into Critical Theory Dustin J Byrd argues that at the core of the Frankfurt School's Critical Theory is a secularized theology Unlike their predecessors especially Feuerbach Marx Lenin Freud and Nietzsche who argued for an abstract negation of religion the first generation of Critical Theorists followed Hegel's logic and attempted to rescue and preserve the revolutionary emancipatory and liberational aspects of religion in their secular non conformist philosophy They saw in both Judaism and Christianity certain conceptual and semantic elements that could be enlisted into their struggle for a future reconciled society one beyond the slaughterbench of history In order to rescue religion theological concepts had to go through the process of determinate negation wherein such materials migrate from the depth of the religious mythos into publicly accessible reasoning thus making the revolutionary impulse of prophetic religion accessible to the secular world Byrd also argues that this determinate negation of religion remains relevant to today's post secular societies especially in regard to religious Muslims attempting to find their place in Western countries which are often hostile to religion and religiosity Examining the strengths and weaknesses of Habermas famous translation proviso he argues that both religious and secular citizens of the West can learn from the Frankfurt School's dialectical approach to religion in order to find a space wherein both religious faith and secular reason can not only co exist but also join together in the process of creating a more reconciled future society

The Religion of Philosophy Raymond St. James Perrin, 1885 It is well known that religion as well as philosophy depends upon language for the expression of its truths This seems a simple proposition but what are its consequences If language is the sole medium of development of the higher thoughts and feelings in its genesis may we not hope to discover the deepest truths of life and mind Before the complex symbols which we call words came into use and hence before the mind acquired the faculty of forming thoughts or extended comparisons activities or motions were the only medium of expression between sentient beings Language is the development of these expressive actions and so highly complex has it become so far removed from its rude beginnings that it seems another order of creation a system of miraculous origin But when we remember that intelligence is a concomitant development with language that thought or spirit is but a building up of words into ideas and that these words are merely condensed memories common experiences which have become current from tongue to tongue is it not evident that there is no impenetrable mystery in speech and that its product mind is a synthesis of simple and familiar truths Again when we retrace sensibility or feeling from which language has been gradually evolved to its beginnings in organic life we find no absolute demarcations we find that all life whether mental or physical is interdependent

Introduction The Journal of Speculative Philosophy, 1881 The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular, 2014-05-28 The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular Studies on the Future of Religion contains the work of fifteen international scholars who have wrestled with the question of the relevancy meaning and future of religion within the context of the increasing antagonisms between the religious and secular realms of modern civil society and its globalization Through their chosen topics in analyzing these issues in the 20th and 21st centuries each author also indicates the possibility of mitigating if not preventing the continuation of this antagonism by historically moving toward a more reconciled and humane future global society Contributors are Branko An i Aleksandra Baranova Roland T Boer Francis Brassard Dustin Byrd Donald Devon III Neven Duvnjak Jan W R Fennema Denis R Janz Dinka Marinovi Jerolimov Gottfried K enzlen Mislav Kuko Michael R Ott Rudolf J Siebert and Ivica Sokol Dialectics and Humanism ,1978 Dialectics and Revolution David H. DeGrood,1978 The Theories of Darwin and Their Relation to Philosophy, Religion, and Morality Rudolf Schmid,1882 History of the Dialectic Society Edinburgh (Scotland). University. Dialectic Society,1887 Marx, Critical Theory, and Religion Warren Goldstein,Warren S. Goldstein,2006 This collection of essays brings together scholars who use frameworks provided by Marx and Critical Theory in analyzing religion It s goal is to establish a critical theory of religion within sociology of religion as an alternative to rational choice Studies in the Hegelian Dialectic John McTaggart Ellis McTaggart,1896 The False Dialectic Between Christians and Atheists Tom Donovan,2016 Could it be that atheism and belief in God are both forms of avoidance behavior It s easier to focus on belief than it is to take up a new practice of living Perhaps both are ideological distractions that mystify the nature of reality and what knowledge is What if we admit that we are neither believers nor atheists Does that mean we re nothing Philosophy aims to help us understand the world without appealing to something beyond It s considered to be rooted in the search for eternal truths and when the truth is unclear philosophy is expected to embrace modesty and have a willingness to say I don t know Rejecting the false dialectic of God atheism will help us recognize that the world is our construction and our responsibility so long as we are here Drawing on Georg Luk cs and Max Horkheimer the author argues that belief in God and atheism are both ideological distractions They are both forms of immaturity that can only be transcended through action The real good news is that we can do away with belief in the supernatural but it will take more than non belief it will take philosophical action He takes us on a journey through our philosophical practices to purge ourselves of mystified notions The journey is long but at least the path is strewn with the charm of Socrates Descartes Marx and Sartre In short Prof Donovan says Nothing exists but this world our world Nothing is beyond God and atheism Why not become nothing Make yourself and those who matter proud
