Relax This Interview Wont Hurt:

From Goldfish Bowl to Ocean Zoe McIntosh, 2011-06-14 Description Zoe McIntosh's book is based around sixteen recorded conversations with people who have volunteered to open up about their experiences with serious mental health problems. Their accounts illustrate the varying ways that people cope with mental illness. Zoe hopes that through writing this book people with mental illnesses will feel that they are not alone. Uniquely she offers an insight into people's lives which challenges the more traditional perspective of the medical profession. In this way the book is able to tackle the stigma which surrounds mental health issues today.

About the Author Zoe McIntosh is a mental health worker and writer. She was born in London in 1975 and spent her childhood years in Holland. She has lived in Oxford for the past ten years and is due to begin studying for an MA in World History in September at Sussex University. She wrote From Goldfish Bowl to Ocean in order to show how some people deal with mental health problems.

Hurting Too Much Harry Keeble, Kris Hollington, 2012-02-16 Detective Sergeant Harry Keeble's bestselling books Baby X and Little Victim described his early years in Hackney's Child Protection Unit as he battled to get to grips with cases of unimaginably horrific child abuse. In Broken Angels, a more experienced Harry relates a series of extraordinary cases he encountered with Ella, a young and newly qualified social worker. Together Harry and Ella faced the violence of forced marriage, the horror of maternal incest, and the cruelty of child slavery. Their investigations took them into a mosque, a drug den, and a recording studio. Just as the unrelenting caseload threatened to push the inexperienced Ella over the edge, Harry uncovered one of the most shocking cases of child abuse he'd ever encountered, forcing the duo to tread new ground in the search for justice. Broken Angels reveals why working in Child Protection has never been so tough. It also shows why, despite the fact that so many courageous people are ready and willing to meet impossible challenges we are still unable to reach all of the broken angels that so desperately need our help
