Robert Minhinnick Selected Poems:

Selected Poems Robert Minhinnick, 1999 This text draws on six previous collections published between 1978 and 1994 The earlier poems are diverse ranging from descriptions of work in heavy industry to observations of wildlife around the writer's childhood home in Wales Later poems deal with travel in Brazil and the United States and also deal with schizophrenia The book celebrates the life and characters of a close knit community It then breaks away from the peopled landscape to consider history and culture from wider perspectives

New Selected Poems Robert Minhinnick, 2012-12-01 Encompassing more than 30 years worth of work this poetry compilation explores the complexities of belonging in the world While rooted in the rich particularity of industrial south Wales and the Welsh seaside resort this collection's scope is global Both lyrical and highly political it mourns the ancient savaged landscape of Iraq listens to primeval echoes in the Welsh landscape and celebrates the rhythms of the Americas Including translations from six modern Welsh language poets it demonstrates the interconnectedness of people and landscapes

Diary of the Last Man Robert Minhinnick, 2017-04-15 Wales Book of the Year 2018 Winner of the 2018 Roland Mathias Poetry Award Shortlisted for the 2017 T S Eliot Prize The opening poem sequence Diary of the Last Man sets the tone for Robert Minhinnick's book a celebration of the dwindling Earth an elegy a caution His Wales is a touchstone other landscapes and cityscapes are tried against it with its erratic weather its sudden changes of mood a black tonic The sequence remembers all the geographies of his earlier work old and new world but now unpeopled and the lonely spirit free to go anywhere do anything but meaning with mankind has drained away Yet still alive and still with language registering The rest of the book is filled with voices of children of rivers terrorists magicians and voices translated from the Welsh and from Turkish and Arabic shared enriching with their difference their other worlds History washes over and washes up on the strand of this Welsh book It is seen and recognised it begins to be transformed In the long concluding poem The Sand Orchestra the poet returns to his own voice and to the voice of a Bechstein piano abandoned in the open air played now by nature its winds and sand The last man who has been looking for Ulysses is the very man he has been looking for

The Beach in Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Ursula Kluwick, Virginia Richter, 2016-03-09 From early colonial encounters to the ecological disasters of the twenty first century the performativity of contact has been a crucial element in the political significance of the beach Conceptualising the beach as a creative trope and as a socio cultural site as well as an aesthetically productive topography this collection examines its multiplicity of meanings and functions as a natural environment engendering both desire and fear in the human imagination from the Victorian period to the present The contributors examine literature film and art in addition to moments of encounter and environmental crisis to highlight the beach as a social space inspiring particular codes of behaviour and specific discourses as a geographical frontier between land and water as an historical site of contact and conflict and as a vacationscape promising regeneration and withdrawal from everyday life The diversity of the beach is reflected in the geographical range with essays on locales and texts from Britain Ireland the Caribbean South Africa the United States Polynesia and New Zealand Focusing on the changed function of the beach as a result of processes of industrialisation and the rise of a modern leisure and health culture this interdisciplinary volume theorises the beach as a demarcater of the precarious boundary between land and the sea as well as between nature and culture Contemporary Poetry, 2011

The New Poetry in Wales Ian Gregson, 2007 By evolving new techniques to explore today's most pressing issues environmental destruction and the damage inflicted on the third world by global capitalism contemporary Welsh poets are making some of the most exciting poetry in Britain In addition to investigating these new methods of poetic inquiry Ian Gregson in The New Poetry of Wales explores the issue of language a particularly urgent concern for these poets who must choose between writing in English or Welsh With penetrating analyses of a range of new poets including Robert Minhinnick and Gwyneth Lewis the former Welsh poet laureate Gregson's book is an invaluable introduction to a robust field Fifty Fifty Robyn Marsack, 2020-12-21 A Book of the Year 2019 in The Morning Star This is a rare glimpse into the inner workings of a small ambitious press over a period of radical transformation in publishing Each of Carcanet's fifty years is marked by an exchange of letters handwritten typed and now emailed between an author and the editor Beginning in 1969 with the response to an invitation to subscribe to Carcanet for two guineas the book traces Carcanet's progress and offers insight into the nature of literary editing At its heart is the personal relationship of author and editor publisher the conflicts friendships and vicissitudes that occur at the nexus between the work its creator publisher and reader Poets are central but fiction writers translators biographers and critics also contribute to the Carcanet ferment and firmament Fifty Fifty celebrates the writers readers and editor's risks passions and pleasures A Guide to Welsh Literature M. Wynn Thomas, 2003

Seren Selections Amy Wack, 2006 Introducing 11 new British poets this compact anthology features fresh voices with an emphasis on Welsh poets but also highlights writers from elsewhere in Britain Though most of these young writers have not yet published a collection several of them have already won the Eric Gregory Award for writers under 30 while many have been anthologized or published in magazines This diverse sampler of contemporary British poetry is a wider showcase for the work of these promising talents Poetry Wales, 2005 The Poetry Review Stephen Phillips, Galloway Kyle, Harold Monroe, 2005 The Poetry Review, 1990 Twentieth Century Anglo-Welsh Poetry Dannie Abse, 2004 English language poetry in Wales is largely a twentieth century phenomenon as this anthology demonstrates its contribution to poetry in Britain is influential beyond its brief history First published in 1997 this new edition brings the century completely up to date with the inclusion of work by outstanding new poets Owen Sheers Sarah Corbett Kate Bingham Frances Williams and Samantha Wynne Rhydderch BOOK JACKET The Bloodaxe Book of Modern Welsh Poetry Menna Elfyn, John Rowlands, 2003 Welsh is the oldest surviving Celtic language and the most flourishing For around fifteen centuries Welsh poets have expressed an intense awareness of what it is like to be human in this part of the world in poems of extraordinary range and depth And despite the global tendency towards homogenisation Welsh poets have fought back drawing inspiration from both the traditional and the contemporary to forge a new and rainbow like modernism This wide ranging anthology of 20th century Welsh language poetry in English translation by far the most comprehensive of its kind will be a revelation for most readers It will dispel the romantic images of Welsh poets as bards or druids and blow away any preconceived mists of Celtic twilight This poetry is full of vitality combining old craftsmanship and daring innovation humour and angst the oral and the literary The selection brings together poets of every hue from magisterial figures like T Gwynn Jones R Williams Parry and Saunders Lewis to folk poets such as Alun Cilie and Dic Jones from cerebral poets Pennar Davies and Bobi Jones to popular entertainers Geraint L vgreen and Ifor ap Glyn There are Chaplinesque poets rebellious and subversive ones lyrical voices and storytellers The variety is enormous from Welsh performance poetry to song lyrics from the wry social comment of Grahame Davies to the contemporary parables of Gwyneth Lewis who writes different kinds of poems in Welsh and English This exuberant chorus of voices from the margins of Europe proves that poetry in this minority language is far from stagnant Poetry Book Society Recommended Translation     The Powys Review ,1985     Glamorgan Society Prys Morgan,1988

Stand Magazine ,1999     Critical Survey ,1994     A Bibliographical Guide to Twenty-four Modern Anglo-Welsh Writers John Harris,Edward John Davies,1994 This is the most detailed guide in existence to a significant portion of the now extensive English language literature of Wales Two dozen major writers who are generally associated with the Anglo Welsh literary renaissance are covered here Some like Dylan Thomas are internationally known figures who have been the subject of bibliographies in these cases the treatment here is the most up to date and comprehensive yet published Others less well known outside Wales are given full bibliographical treatment for the first time The volume will therefore be indispensable to students and teachers of literature in English at all levels The bibliography lists publications by and about each chosen writer Primary sections record the writer s monographic output in all editions and translations as well as uncollected contributions to books periodicals and newspapers Secondary lists include critical and biographical studies of each writer independent monographs sections of books periodical essays and academic theses Two important sections preface the individual author bibliographies one covering anthologies of Anglo Welsh poetry and prose the other a range of general critical and background studies In all this bibliography with close on 6 000 selectively annotated entries provides an indispensable reference guide to a developing area of literary and cultural research     The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000
