River Of Darkness:

River of Darkness R. AIRTH, 2002 Ashes ... Stefan Żeromski, 1928 Shows the unsightly side of the Habsburg Empire It is a declaration of disagreement with idealization of the Austrian partition and the model of state management used in its territory From the postcolonial point of view it is a novel about people and territories forced in spite of bloody resistance to become the periphery of an empire The Old Republic of Poland was not a glorious metropolis but it was still a metropolis Colonization transformed and divided this metropolis into provinces of three empires with all the consequences that a transformation of this kind brings The so called Polish Sarmatism from which the heroes of Ashes derive endowed citizens of Sarmatian Poland with a sense of self worth and liberty Austrian colonization destroyed their liberty and compelled the Poles to serve the interests of their conquerors Ashes is a narrative of the Sarmatian culture that survived among the nobility with pedigrees and estates and was also potentially present among smallholders with no pedigree and no assets The novel suggests that it is not necessary to be a noble to possess the sense of liberty that the Republic of Poland developed and cultivated

Contemporary Narrative and the Spectrum of Materiality Marco Caracciolo, 2023-07-04 How do physical things differ from non things human subjects animals abstract ideas or processes Those questions which are as old as philosophy itself have inspired contemporary debates in ecocriticism thing theory and in the interdisciplinary field of new materialism This book argues that contemporary narrative is well placed to map out and work through the spectrum of the material and the philosophical questions that underlie it This is because narrative does not resolve the tensions at the heart of conceptions of materiality but rather reframes them envisioning their implications and exploring their relevance to concrete contexts of human interaction This monograph is structured around a number of novels experimental fiction films and video games that imagine the inherent agency of things but also interrogate the affective and ethical significance of materiality in human terms Its aim is to demonstrate the power of formal narrative analysis to foster conceptually and ethically sophisticated ways of thinking about thingness in times of ecological crisis that is times in which stuff can no longer be taken for granted
