Road From Ardoyne:

The Road from Ardoyne Ray Mac Mánaís, 2004 Mary McAleese Ireland's President has a longstanding interest in many issues concerned with justice equality social inclusion anti sectarianism and reconciliation She was a member of the Catholic Church Episcopal Delegation to the New Ireland Forum in 1984 and she was a founder member of the Irish Commission for the Prisoners Overseas on 11 November 1997 she became the first President to come from Northern Ireland and has enjoyed a remarkably high approval rating in opinion polls

Refugees and Forced Displacement in Northern Ireland's Troubles Niall Gilmartin, Brendan Ciarán Browne, 2022-10-15 Though forced displacement constituted a central and pervasive feature of the Northern Ireland Troubles effecting tens of thousands of citizens remarkably it has been afforded little more than a footnote or fleeting reference in most accounts of the conflict This book seeks to end the silence surrounding this neglected and ubiquitous aspect of the conflict Based on 88 in depth qualitative interviews with victims and survivors and extensive secondary research this fascinating study provides the first comprehensive examination of forced displacement in Northern Ireland The analysis presented captures the unique perspectives of those forcibly uprooted over the course of the 30 year conflict and places on historical record their stories and experiences This thought provoking work challenges and broadens prevailing understandings of conflict related violence harm and loss in Northern Ireland to demonstrate the centrality of forced movement territory and demographics to the roots and subsequent trajectory of the Troubles In doing so it shows that to fully understand the eruption and outplaying of the Troubles and its elusive peace engagement with and understanding of the legacy of forced displacement is crucial

Northern Ireland: An Agony Continued Ken Wharton, 2015-05-19 This book is called An Agony Continued because it was simply that an agony It was an agony which commenced at the end of the 1960s and as the new decade of the 80s arrived so the pain the grief the loss and the economic destruction of Northern Ireland continued Little did any of us know at the time but it was to do so for almost a further two decades Between January 1980 and December 1989 around 1 000 people died many were soldiers and policemen some were Prison Officers some were paramilitaries and some were innocent civilians The Provisional IRA PIRA and their slightly more psychopathic cousins in the Irish National Liberation Army INLA would continue to kill innocent civilians by the score during this decade Across the sectarian divide the Ulster Freedom Fighters UFF and the equally vicious Ulster Volunteer Force UVF would continue to slaughter Catholics in streets in pubs and in restaurants This book will look at the period which encompassed the 48 months of 1980 and 1983 It was a near half decade which saw the Hyde Park and Regent's Park massacre of soldiers and horses from the Blues and Royals and the cowardly bombing of the Royal Green Jackets band It further witnessed the murder of 18 people by the INLA at a disco held in the Droppin Well in Ballykelly and also the death of the leader of the Shankill Butchers Lenny Murphy The years under study include the 1981 deaths of ten Republican paramilitaries who starved themselves to death in protest against the loss of their status as political prisoners As ever this book pulls no punches in its absolute detestation of both Republican and Loyalist paramilitaries This book continues Ken Wharton s epic journey through the Troubles in Northern Ireland viewed primarily through the eyes of the British Army squaddies on the ground The Modern Tramway ,1954 Belfast and Derry in Revolt Simon Prince,Geoffrey Warner,2019-09-16 In the late 1960s and early 1970s a civil war started in Northern Ireland This book tells that story through Belfast and Derry using original archival research to trace how multiple and overlapping conflicts unfolded on their streets The Troubles grew out of a political process that mobilised opponents and defenders of the Stormont regime and which also dragged London and Dublin into the crisis Drawing upon government papers police reports army files intelligence summaries evidence to inquiries and parish chronicles this book sheds fresh light on key events such as the 5 October 1968 march the Battle of the Bogside the Belfast riots of August 1969 the Battle of St Matthew s June 1970 and the Falls Road curfew July 1970 Prince and Warner offer us two richly detailed engaging narratives that intertwine to present a new history of the start of the Troubles in Belfast and Derry one that also establishes a foundation for comparison with similar developments elsewhere in the world Talking Stones Elisabetta Viggiani,2014-08-01 If memory was simply about past events public authorities would never put their ever shrinking budgets at its service Rather memory is actually about the present moment as Pierre Nora puts it Through the past we venerate above all ourselves This book examines how collective memory and material culture are used to support present political and ideological needs in contemporary society Using the memorialization of the Troubles in contemporary Northern Ireland as a case study this book investigates how non state often proscribed organizations have filled a societal vacuum in the creation of public memorials In particular these groups have sifted through the past to propose official collective narratives of national identification historical legitimation and moral justifications for violence A Belfast Child John Chambers,2020-09-03 John Chambers was brought up on Belfast s notorious Loyalist Glencairn estate during the height of the Troubles From an early age he witnessed violence hatred and horror as Northern Ireland tore itself apart in civil strife Kneecapping brutal murders and even public tarring and feathering were simply a fact of life for the children on the estate He thought he knew which side he was on but although raised as a Loyalist he was hiding a troubling secret that his disappeared mother whom he d always been told was dead was a Roman Catholic the enemy In a memoir of rare power John explores the dark heart of Northern Irish sectarianism in the seventies and eighties With searing honesty and native Belfast wit he describes the light and darkness of his unique childhood and his teenage journey through mod culture and ultra Loyalism before an escape from Belfast to London where still haunted by the shadow of his fractured family history he began a turbulent and hedonistic adulthood A Belfast Child is a tale of divided loyalties dark secrets and the scars left by hatred and violence on a proud city but also a story of hope healing and ultimate redemption for a family caught in the rising tide of the Troubles Focus ,2001 Reports from Secret and Select Committees of the House of Commons and Evidence Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1848 The Belfast and

Province of Ulster Directory ,1895 Unfinished business Marisa McGlinchey,2019-01-17 This book discusses the development of dissident Irish republicanism and considers its impact on politics throughout Ireland since the 1980s Based on a series of interviews with over ninety radical republican activists from the wide range of groups and currents which make up dissident republicanism the book provides an up to date assessment of the political significance and potential of the groups who continue to oppose the peace process and the Good Friday Agreement It shows that the dissidents are much more than traditionalist irreconcilables left behind by Gerry Adams entry into the mainstream Instead the book suggests that the dynamics and trajectory of dissident republicanism are shaped more by contemporary forces than historical tradition and that by understanding the dissidents we can better understand the emerging forms of political challenge in an age of austerity and increasing political instability internationally Worrall's Textile Directory of the Manufacturing Districts in Ireland, Scotland, Wales, and the Counties of Chester, Derby, Gloucester, Leicester, Nottingham, Worcester, and Other Manufacturing Districts Not Included in Worrall's Textile Directories of Lancashire and Yorkshire ,1897 Annual Report and Statement of Accounts Belfast City Tramways,1934 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
