The Reception of Blake in the Orient Steve Clark, Masashi Suzuki, 2006-04-01 This volume brings together research from international scholars focusing attention on the longevity and complexity of Blake's reception in Japan and elsewhere in the East. It is designed as not only a celebration of his art and poetry in new and unexpected contexts but also to contest the intensely nationalistic and parochial Englishness of his work and in broader terms the inevitable passivity with which Romanticism and other Western intellectual movements have been received in the Orient. Robert Browning's Father. His Way with a Book. An Account of Annotations Made by Browning's Father in His Copy of John Landseer's Lectures on the Art of Engraving, Etc Albert Foster BUTLER, Robert BROWNING (Father of the Poet.), 1969 From the Later Roman Empire to Late Antiquity and Beyond Averil Cameron, 2023-05-23 Averil Cameron is one of the leading historians of late antiquity and Byzantium. This collection, Cameron's third in the Variorum series, discusses the changing approach among historians of the later Roman empire from the 1960s to the present, and the articles reproduced have been chosen to reflect both these wider changes in treatments of the subject as well as Cameron's own development as a historian over many decades. It provides a revealing and important survey of some profound historiographical changes. Her volume contains fundamental papers and reviews that tell a story in which she has played a leading part. They move from her early days as an ancient historian to her important contribution in the establishment of the field of late antiquity and point to her later work as a Byzantinist, a trajectory rivalled by few other scholars. The book will be important for scholars and students of the later Roman empire and late antiquity and for anyone interested in the inheritance of Edward Gibbon, the perennial questions about the end of the Roman empire and its supposed decline or the emergence of Islam in the early seventh century and its relation to the late antique world. Copyright Office, 1972 The Family Friend, 1887 The Church Quarterly Review Arthur Cayley Headlam, 1890 Littell's Living Age, 1890 The Academy, 1897 The Cambridge Edition of the Poets: Browning, 1895 The Powell Papers Hershel Parker, 2011 In 1849 months before the term confidence man was coined to identify a New York crook, Thomas Powell, 1809-1887, a spherical monocled English poetaster, dramatist, journalist, embezzler, and forger, landed in Manhattan. Powell in London had capped a career of grand theft and literary peccadilloes by feigning a suicide attempt and having himself committed to a madhouse, after which he fled England. He had been an intimate of William Wordsworth, Elizabeth Barrett, Robert Browning, Charles Dickens, and a crowd of lesser literary folk. Thoughtfully bearing what he presented as a volume of Tennyson with a few trifling revisions in the hand, the poet Powell was embraced by the slavishly Anglophile New York literary establishment, including a young Herman Melville. In two pot boilers, The Living Authors of England 1849 and The Living Authors of America 1850, Powell denounced the most revered American author, Washington Irving, for plagiarism, provoked Charles Dickens to vengeful trans-Atlantic outrage, and then panic and capped his insolence by identified Irving and Melville as the two worst enemies of the American mind For almost four more decades he sniped at Dickens put words in Melville s mouth and survived even the most conscientious efforts to expose him Long fascinated by this incorrigible rogue Hershel Parker in The Powell Papers uses a few familiar documents and a mass of freshly discovered material including a devastating portrait of Powell in a serialized novel to unfold a captivating tale of skullduggery through the words of great artists and then admired journalists alike The Living Age ,1890 Church Quarterly Review ,1890 The National union catalog ,1968-1972 ,1973 Browning, Poet and Man Elisabeth Luther Cary,1899 The Art Journal ,1896 The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1893 North-western Christian Advocate ,1899 The Life and Works of Alfred Lord Tennyson Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1893
