Robert Lowell Collected Prose:

Collected Prose Robert Lowell, 1987 This is the first collection of Robert Lowell's poetry which reveals a writer of unmistakable brilliance who has a profound insight into the human condition

Collected Poems Robert Lowell, 2003-06-30 For the first time the collected poems of America's preeminent postwar poet Edmund Wilson wrote of Robert Lowell that he was the only recent American poet if you don't count Eliot who writes successfully in the language and cadence and rhyme of the resounding English tradition Frank Bidart and David Gewanter have compiled a definitive edition of Lowell's poems from the early triumph of Lord Weary's Castle winner of the Pulitzer Prize to the brilliant willfulness of his Imitations of Sappho Baudelaire Rilke and other masters to the late spontaneity of his History winner of another Pulitzer and of his last book of poems Day by Day The book will also include several poems never previously collected as well as a selection of Lowell's intriguing drafts As poet and critic Randall Jarrell said You feel before reading any new poem of his the uneasy expectation of perhaps encountering a masterpiece Lowell's Collected Poems will offer the first opportunity to view the entire range of his astonishing verse Collected Prose/Robert Lowell ; Edited and Introduced by Robert Giroux Robert Lowell, 1990

Robert Lowell Steven Axelrod, Helen Deese, 1986 Robert Lowell is one of the most widely recognised and influential poets of the second half of this century Yet his career is problematical and raises many questions about direction and quality particularly in light of his repeated reorientation of thematic concern and poetic technique Many previous studies of the poet have accounted for these radical differences in Lowell's work by examining the poet's private life but this collection of essays attempts to reassess Lowell's poetry and to restimulate critical thinking about it by focusing on his texts to raise new questions and discussions about the work The twelve essays in this volume by many of the most distinguished scholars in the field offer a chronological review of Robert Lowell's career as a poet The book includes pieces on major works such as Lord Weary's Castle Life Studies For the Union Dead Skunk Hour Notebook the sonnets of 1969-73 as well as four essays devoted to Lowell's last complete and often neglected work Day by Day Employing a variety of methodologies the essays arrive at innovative and often controversial interpretations of Lowell's poems Robert Lowell in a New Century Thomas Austenfeld, 2019 New essays providing fresh insights into the great 20th century American poet Lowell his writings and his struggles American Poetry since 1945 Eleanor Spencer-Regan, 2017-09-16 This book features a collection of essays on some of the key poets of post war America written by leading scholars in the field All the essays have been newly commissioned to take account of the diverse movements in American poetry since 1945 and also to reflect retrospectively on some of the major talents that have shaped its development In the aftermath of the Second World War American poets took stock of their own tumultuous past but faced the future with radically new artistic ideals and commitments More than ever before American poetry spoke with its own distinctive accents and declared its own dreams and desires This is the era of confessionalism beat poetry protest poetry and avant garde postmodernism This book explores the work of John Berryman

Robert Lowell Elizabeth Bishop Adrienne Rich and Sylvia Plath as well as contemporary African American poets and new poetic voices emerging in the 21st century This New Casebook introduces the major American poets of the post war generation evaluates their achievements in the light of changing critical opinion and offers lively incisive readings of some of the most challenging and enthralling poetry of the modern era

A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts,2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century

Innovators David W. Galenson,2025-01-21 Some innovators are luminous shooting stars think Pablo Picasso Albert Einstein Sylvia Plath Bob Dylan Steve Jobs who make bold leaps early and suddenly then lose their creativity Others are late bloomers Paul Cezanne Charles Darwin Virginia Woolf Alfred Hitchcock Warren Buffett who show little early promise but spend long periods doggedly

pursing distant goals and attain greatness in old age By analyzing the careers of scores of great innovators this book reveals systematic differences in the motivations and methods of these two types and their very different patterns of creativity over the life cycle The result is a new and deeper unified understanding of the sources of human creativity Dickinson's Nerves, Frost's Woods William Logan,2018-06-05 In Dickinson s Nerves Frost s Woods William Logan the noted and often controversial critic of contemporary poetry returns to some of the greatest poems in English literature He reveals what we may not have seen before and what his critical eye can do with what he loves In essays that pair different poems Ozymandias On First Looking Into Chapman s Homer In a Station of the Metro The Red Wheelbarrow After great pain a formal feeling comes and Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening among others Logan reconciles history and poetry to provide new ways of reading poets ranging from Shakespeare and Shelley to Lowell and Heaney In these striking essays Logan presents the poetry of the past through the lens of the past attempting to bring poems back to the world in which they were made Logan s criticism is informed by the material culture of that world whether postal deliveries in Regency London the Metro lighting in 1911 Paris or the wheelbarrows used in 1923 Deeper knowledge of the poet s daily existence lets us read old poems afresh providing a new way of understanding poems now encrusted with commentary Logan shows that criticism cannot just root blindly among the words of the poem but must live partly in a lost world in the shadow of the poet s life and the shadow of the age Notebook 1967-68 Robert Lowell,2009-09-15 A cycle of unrhymed sonnets dealing with public and private crises marriage middle age and fatherhood Notebook 1967 68 is considered by many readers to be one of Robert Lowell s most innovative and searching works Yet these freeform sonnets which Lowell reworked in later volumes are not included in their original form in his Collected Poems Praised by Seamus Heaney for its immediate unprepossessing blunt edged force Notebook 1967 68 is a key to Lowell s later style and a landmark in twentieth century poetry The Interior Castle Ann Hulbert,1992 A reprint of the Knopf edition of 1992 reviewed by Kirkus 3 1 92 PW 3 16 92 Booklist 6 15 92 LJ 5 15 92 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Reading the Middle Generation Anew Eric Haralson,2006-05 Ten original essays by advanced scholars and well published poets address the middle generation of American poets including the familiar Robert Lowell Elizabeth Bishop Randall Jarrell and John Berryman and various important contemporaries Delmore Schwartz Theodore Roethke Robert Hayden and Lorine Niedecker This was a famously troubled cohort of writers for reasons both personal and cultural and collectively their poems give us powerful moving insights into American social life in the transforming decades of the 1940s through the 1960s In addition to having worked during the broad middle of the last century these poets constitute the center of twentieth century American poetry in the larger sense refuting invidious connotations of middle as coming after the great moderns and being superseded by a proliferating postmodern experimentation This middle generation mediates the so called American century and its prodigious body of poetry even as it complicates historical and aesthetic categorizations Taking diverse formal and thematic angles on these poets deconstructionist biographical historical and more formalist accounts this book re examines their between ness and ambivalence their various positionings and repositionings in aesthetic political and personal matters The essays study the interplay between these writers and such shifting formations as religious discourse consumerism militarism and war the ideology of America as nature s nation and U S race relations and ethnic conflicts Reading the Middle Generation Anew also shows the legacy of the middle generation the ways in which their lives and writings continue to be a shaping force in American poetry This fresh and invigorating collection will be of great interest to literary scholars and poets Imagining Boston Shaun O'Connell,1990 O Connell English U of Mass Boston discusses not only the familiar Boston Cambridge Concord literary figures from Emerson Thoreau and Hawthorne to Updike Cheever and Robert Lowell but also authors of other roots and regions including Edwin O Connor WEB Dubois John Greenleaf Whittier Norman Mailer Robert Frost and Emily Dickinson Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Listener ,1987-07 Research Guide to Biography and Criticism: 1990 update ,1985 Recovering Berryman Richard J. Kelly,Alan K. Lathrop,1993 John Berryman was one of the most celebrated and accomplished poets of his time In the two decades since his death critical and biographical interest has continued at an impressive rate but until now no collection of original essays has appeared Editors Richard J Kelly and Alan K Lathrop have brought together essays that provide a fresh assessment of Berryman as teacher friend colleague poet and critic The volume opens with a moving personal reflection by Pulitzer Prize winning poet Philip Levine who was one of Berryman s students and includes contributions from Berryman scholars Lewis Hyde Paul Mariani Peter Stitt and Charles Thornbury The book concludes with Berryman s one act play Cleopatra A Meditation written in 1937 and never before published The essays advance our understanding of Berryman s life and work providing insights on his excellence as a teacher his influential relationship with Robert Lowell and the creative and destructive effects of alcohol on his work among other topics BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
