Petrine Ministry:

Ruptured Bodies Eugene R. Schlesinger, 2024 Ruptured Bodies is a systematic theological account of the divided church. It argues that no adequate ecclesiology can ignore division because it will not describe the church that actually is. Such an understanding must integrate the reality of division while also refusing to blunt its sharp edge, neither dismissing, excusing, or minimizing it. What must the church be given the fact of its division? Schlesinger presents a systematic ecclesiology of the divided church despite that idea's seeming impossibility because such an ecclesiology is precisely what we need. An Introductory Dictionary of Theology and Religious Studies Orlando O. Espín, James B. Nickoloff, 2007 Spanning the gamut from Aaron to Zwingli, this dictionary includes nearly 3,000 entries written by about sixty authors, all of whom are specialists in their various theological and religious disciplines. The editors have designed the dictionary especially to aid the introductory level student with instant access to definitions of terms likely to be encountered in, but not to substitute for, classroom presentations or reading assignments. Publisher A Critical Study of Hans Küng's Ecclesiology C. Simut, 2008-07-07 The book presents the transition from traditionalism to modernism in connection to two of Küng's most important books on ecclesiology: Structures of the Church 1962 as representing Küng's traditional theology and On Being a Christian 1974 as a reflection of his modern approach to Christianity. Harvesting the Fruits Walter Kasper, 2009-12-14 Cardinal Kasper summarises the results of his intense dialogues with Anglican, Orthodox, Lutheran, Reformed, and Methodist Churches and sets out a blue print for consensus and convergence and sets out a map for the way forward. The Petrine Ministry Walter Kasper, 2006 This collection of papers has its origin in the encyclical letter Ut unum sint no 95 and the request of Pope John Paul II to study the question of the Petrine ministry with other Christians with a view to seeking together, of course, the forms in which this ministry may accomplish a service of love recognized by all concerned. After the promulgation of the encyclical in 1995, the theme of the Petrine ministry in its implications for dialogue with the other churches and ecclesial communities resonated throughout the ecumenical community and in studies, conferences, and courses at institutes and research centers focusing on the theological and historical aspects of the issue. The symposium presented here, organized by the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity, is aimed at furthering study of the role of the Bishop of Rome in the perspective of the search for Christian unity. Catholic experts and delegates representing a range of Orthodox churches took part in the closed door symposium at which eight speakers presented papers dealing with each theme from the Catholic and Orthodox points of view. Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Paul Murray, 2010-05-06 This volume proposes a fresh strategy for ecumenical engagement: Receptive Ecumenism, that is fitted to the challenges of the contemporary context and has already been internationally recognised as making a distinctive and important new contribution to ecumenical thought and practice. Beyond this, the volume tests and illustrates this proposal by examining what Roman Catholicism in particular might fruitfully learn from its ecumenical others. Challenging the tendency for ecumenical studies to ask whether explicitly or implicitly What do our others need to learn from us this volume presents a radical challenge to see ecumenism move forward into action by highlighting the opposite question What can we learn with integrity from our others This approach is not simply ecumenism as shared mission or ecumenism as problem solving and incremental agreement but ecumenism as a vital long term programme of individual communal and structural conversion driven like the Gospel that inspires it by the promise of conversion into greater life and flourishing The aim is for the Christian traditions to become more not less than they currently are by learning from or receiving of each other s gifts The 32 original essays that have been written for this unique volume explore these issues from a wide variety of denominational and disciplinary perspectives drawing together ecclesiologists professional ecumenists sociologists psychologists and organizational experts
