Phantom Of The Night:

Narratives of Catastrophe Nasrin Qader, 2009-08-25 Narratives of Catastrophe tells the story of the relationship between catastrophe in the senses of down turn and break and narration as recounting in the senses suggested by the French term recit in selected texts by three leading writers from Africa Qader's book begins by exploring the political implications of narrating catastrophic historical events Through careful readings of singular literary texts on the genocide in Rwanda and on Tazmamart a secret prison in Morocco under the reign of Hassan II Qader shows how historical catastrophes enter language and how this language is marked by the catastrophe it recounts Not satisfied with the extra literary characterizations of catastrophe in terms of numbers laws and naming she investigates the catastrophic in catastrophe arguing that catastrophe is always an effect of language and thought The recit becomes a privileged site because the difficulties of thinking and speaking about catastrophe unfold through the very movements of storytelling This book intervenes in important ways in the current scholarship in the field of African literatures It shows the contributions of African literatures in elucidating theoretical problems for literary studies in general such as storytelling's relationship to temporality subjectivity and thought Moreover it addresses the issue of storytelling which is of central concern in the context of African literatures but still remains limited mostly to the distinction between the oral and the written The notion of recit breaks with this duality by foregrounding the inaugural temporality of telling and of writing as repetition The final chapters examine catastrophic turns within the philosophical traditions of the West and in Islamic thought highlighting their interconnections and differences

Stetkevych, 1994-03-22 Employing contemporary literary theory eight members of the Chicago school of Arabic and Persian literature reorient the critical approach to classical Middle Eastern literature The authors analyze a broad spectrum of poetry ranging from the pre-Islamic ode of the sixth century to seventeenth century Persian Safavid Moghul verse Among issues considered are the ritual and sacrificial aspects of literature the transition from orality to literacy the iconographical and mythic dimensions of philology and imitation as a form of creation The inclusion of contemporary translations of all the poems discussed is an important feature for students of Middle Eastern literature and comparative poetics One

Enjoying the Beat of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Phantom Of The Night

In a world taken by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast connection, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony created by the prepared word usually fade into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, set within the pages of Phantom Of The Night a stunning literary treasure filled with organic thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding composer of language, this charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a psychological trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden songs and profound influence resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this emotional examination, we will discover the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
