Salesa,2023-11-01 The Pacific's Indigenous times are not just smaller sections of larger histories but dimensions of their own. Histories of our Pacific world are richly rendered in these essays by Damon Salesa. From the first Indigenous civilisations that flourished in Oceania to the colonial encounters of the nineteenth century and on to the complex contemporary relationships between New Zealand and the Pacific, Salesa offers new perspectives on this vast ocean, its people, its cultures, its pasts and its future. Spanning a wide range of topics from race and migration to Pacific studies and empire, these essays demonstrate Salesa's remarkable scholarship. Bridging the gap between academic disciplines and cultural traditions, Salesa locates Pacific peoples always at the centre of their stories. An Indigenous Ocean is a pivotal contribution to understanding the history and culture of Oceania.

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège,2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France, dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works, the first public viewing of films anywhere. Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès, Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers, and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond. In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors, Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895. From undisputed masters to obscure one-timers, nearly 3,000 directors are cited here, including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France. Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary, including dates and places of birth and death, information on the individual's education and professional training, and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym. The entries also provide complete filmographies, including credits for feature films, shorts, documentaries, and television work. Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia, from masters of the Golden Age, Jean Renoir and René Clair, to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard.

Reference Guide to Fantastic Films: P - Z, 1972 A collection of fantasy, science fiction, and horror films in various languages, listed in title order, referencing the crew for each production. For the purpose of this work, fantastic films are defined as those motion pictures depicting or strongly implying significant exceptions to man's conception of natural reality.

Stitches in Time David Watters,2010-08-23 This book deals with the history of surgery in Papua New Guinea from the early 1800s until the beginning of the 21st Century. It spans the period from the first European contact to the emergence of highly educated sub-specialist national surgeons. It tells the story from the first impressions of ships' surgeons to the introduction and development of surgery. Between 1870 and 1950, the country and the lives of its peoples changed greatly as a result of exploration, evangelisation, colonisation, and war. The history traces the surgical challenges encountered, as well as the colourful characters who provided the health services run by missions, companies, governments, and armies. After World War II, PNG progressed politically from an Australian Administered Territory to become an Independent Nation. Within a generation, it had trained its own doctors and surgeons. The history is set within the context of tropical pathologies, introduced diseases, surgical progress, and the lives of the medics who have contributed to
