Shadow's Secret Missions on Cobblestone Street Robin Wickens, 2024-06-07 The moon a luminous pearl in the velvet sky cast a silver glow on the cobblestone street below Shadows stretched and twisted dancing to a silent tune as the wind whistled through the alleyways Whispers carried on the night breeze seemed to tell tales of secrets and hidden wonders weaving a tapestry of mystery that enveloped the entire village of Hawthorne From the inky depths of a doorway a pair of emerald eyes emerged gleaming like precious jewels They belonged to a creature shrouded in legend and mystery a being of grace and stealth whose very presence held an air of enchantment A cat sleek and silent stepped into the moonlight its paws padding softly across the cobblestones Its fur as black as the midnight sky shimmered with an otherworldly sheen Each movement was fluid and deliberate as if choreographed by the moon itself The cat paused tilting its head its ears twitching as it listened to the symphony of the night The faint rustle of leaves the distant hoot of an owl and the murmured conversations of villagers settling into their homes for the night all formed a harmonious backdrop to the cat s silent vigil This was Shadow a cat known throughout Cobblestone Street not just for his sleek appearance but for the air of mystery that always seemed to accompany him To the villagers Shadow was a guardian of sorts a silent sentinel who watched over the night and ensured that peace reigned while they slept Children whispered tales of his bravery and adults respected his presence believing that wherever Shadow walked he brought with him an invisible cloak of protection      The Garden's Story George Herman Ellwanger,1889      Three Roses and a Carnation Elcor Aragundi,2010-02-05 Elcor Vincent Aragundi lived his career as a professional racing jockey but as a native from Ecuador born in Quito he was first inspired with poetry by his mother when he was still a boy Between then and the moment he had grown he began to write poetry in Spanish when he was still in school He continued to write through the years even after he came to the United States back in March of 1954 Not knowing a word of English when he stepped off the plane in Florida he ended up getting lost at a bus stop to eat He returned unable to match the bus he was on with that of the number he held The bus driver had unknowingly left without him It took two hours before they could find someone that would translate English has always been a huge struggle for him though he desperately wanted to learn It at times would leave him frustrated from the defied opportunities from his inability to communicate and adapt into the language That was then now a proud American citizen celebrating his fifty fifth year in the United States he is a renowned poet with trophies medals and merits awarded to him for his work his passion and his art Recognized by the International Society of Poets in Owings Mills Maryland A Flight in the Night was published back in 2002 by the International Library of Poetry He has been writing in English now for twenty five years With over a hundred poems written half of them reside in Spanish and the other half in English His work is not only a milestone but an inspiration of the heart that proves yet that nothing can stand in the way of his love for poetry      House & Garden ,1927      Journal of Horticulture, Cottage Gardener and Home Farmer ,1888      Home and School William J.
