National Meeting,2009 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2003 Content and Object J. Cavallin,1997-08-31 This study is a revised version of a book published in February 1990 under the same title as my Ph D thesis at the University of Stockholm Revision of an earlier work poses specific problems some of which deserve mentioning After the appearance of the first version of this book new literature on related subjects and a new version of the principal Husserl text involved in the discussion have appeared The newer literature contains both accounts of Twardowski s thought and its relations to Husserl s philosophy though without referring to my study from 1990 largely because the texts concerned were conceived parallel to it though published later or independently of it It would seem anachronistic in this situation to enter into new and extensive discussions with the authors of this literature The choice made here has been to update the original study adding references to texts published after my study and to take account of points of views expressed I have retained the major part of the basic information given in the 1990 version although some of it might now be more familiar to interested students than it was in 1990 The Yearbook on History and Interpretation of Phenomenology 2013 Anton Vydra,2014 The volume encompasses three interrelated areas of phenomenological research person subject and organism The contributors intend to answer a number of inspiring and unexplored questions on Husserlian phenomenology of personhood and subjectivity but also on broader problems including epistemological ontological and biological approaches Nature's Sublime Robert S. Corrington,2013-03-14 Nature s Sublime uses a radical new form of phenomenology to probe into the deepest traits of the human process in its individual social religious and aesthetic dimensions Starting with the selving process the essay describes the role of signs and symbols in intra and interpersonal communication At the heart of the human use of signs is a creative tension between religious symbols and the novel symbols created in the various arts A contrast is made between natural communities which flatten out and reject novel forms of semiosis and communities of interpretation which welcomes creative and enriched signs and symbols The normative claim is made that religious sign symbol systems have a tendency toward tribalism and violence while the various spheres of the aesthetic are comparatively non tribal or even deliberately anti tribal The concept experience of beauty and the sublime is meant to replace that of religious revelation The sublime is not merely an internal mode of attunement contra Kant but comes from the very depths of nature in the potencies of nature naturing Derrida:

Profanations Patrick O'Connor, 2010-05-06 Derrida Profanations presents a re appraisal of Jacques Derrida s deconstruction If philosophy articulates what it means to be human then deconstruction which Patrick O Connor argues consigns all existence to a mortal profane and worldly life remains radically philosophical The assertion demands an analysis of Derrida s radicalisation of the key philosophers who influenced him as well as a rebuttal of theological accounts of deconstruction This book closely examines how the phenomenological lineage is received in deconstruction especially the relation between deconstruction and Derrida s radical readings of Hegel Husserl Levinas and Heidegger This book presents a theorisation of deconstruction as profane atheistic and egalitarian It reveals how deconstruction holds the resources to think ontology as a multiplicity of worlds through demonstrates the ways in which Derrida expresses a phenomenology which disjoins humans orientation to the world Deconstruction is characterized as radically hubristic For deconstruction nothing is sacred If nothing sustains itself as separate exclusive or sacrosanct then nothing can sustain the implementation of its own hierarchy

Ortega as Phenomenologist Philip Silver, 1978-01-01 Steppingstones Toward an Ethics for Fellow Existors E. Spiegelberg, 2012-12-06 In releasing the text of this volume originally set aside as a collec tion for possible posthumous publication during my lifetime I am acting in a sense as my own executor I want to save my heirs and literary executors the decision whether these pieces should be print ed or reprinted in the present context a decision which I wanted to postpone to the last possible moment As to the reasons why I changed my mind I can refer to the Introduction Here I merely want to make some acknowledgments first to the copyright holders for the reprinted pieces and then to some personal friends who had an important influence on the premature birth of this brainchild The copyright holders to whom I am indebted for the permis sion to reprint here in the original or in slightly amended form the articles listed are with their names in alphabetical order Ablex Publishing Company Putting Ourselves into the Place of Others Atherton Press Equality in Existentialism and Human Dignity A Challenge to Contemporary Philosophy Friends Journal Is There a Human Right to One s Native Soil Gordon Breach Human Dignity A Challenge to Contemporary Philosophy Humanities Press Ethics for Fellows in the Fate of Existence Journal of the History of Ideas Accident of Birth A Non utili tarian Motif in Mill s Philosophy Philosophical Review A Defense of Human Equality Review of Existential Psychology and Psychiatry On the I am me Experience in Childhood and Adolescence The Monist A Phenomenological Approach to the Ego Thinking without Desire Panu Minkkinen, 1999-09-01 The book is an attempt to evaluate the reception of Continental philosophy phenomenology hermeneutics deconstruction etc within mainstream jurisprudence The book claims that the reduction of philosophy to social theory can only be accomplished by impoverishing the impetus of philosophical thinking and consequently by transforming critique into criticism and the philosophy of law into legal theory The response developed in this book is the creation of a metaphysical understanding of law or in other words what Aristotle called a first philosophy In addition to philosophy proper the classics of Antiquity the great German philosophers contemporary French thinking the book covers a wide range of jurisprudential literature These include the neo Kantian philosophers of law whose thinking is allegedly at the root of legal positivism but special emphasis is also given to existential philosophers of law deeply inspired by the hermeneutical phenomenology of Martin Heidegger Lastly the book encourages specifically philosophical approaches in law to the thinking of French contemporaries whose work has inspired critical legal scholarship during the past ten years Kierkegaard on the Philosophy of History G.

Patios,2014-04-17 History doesn't have to mean only an effort to know the past It can be instead according to Kierkegaard a willful and personal choice regarding the creation of the future Kierkegaard offers us an amazing new approach to the problem of what is history and who makes it Persons: Theories and Perceptions Désirée Park,1973-07-15 This volume grew out of a dissatisfaction with some issues that seem to be rooted in the Empiricist tradition At least since Locke that which is perceived has enjoyed a major share in any systematic account of what we claim to know A main purpose of this study therefore is first to distinguish and subsequently to relate what can be perceived and what can be understood To this end the account of persons and personal identity begins with a description of selected types of sense perceptions While writing a good part of the discussion on vision I had the advantage of questioning Dr P B Loder about the properties of light She not only clarified some issues but prevented several errors from creeping into the text a result for which I am very grateful I should like also to express my appreciation to Mrs G K Stamm Okkinga who provided hospitality and a friendly interest from the beginning of this study Finally I wish to thank Miss I Ris and Mr W de Regt for their careful and resourceful preparation of the typescript Ecclesial Man Edward Farley,1975 Reason and Life Kim W. Rogers,2003-07-14 Reason and Life begins with a critical historical examination of past forms of reason Ancient and Modern as well as more recent contenders Existentialism Phenomenology the New Marxism All of these are critiqued as not capable of adequately interpreting life that is the interaction of living beings and their environment because of their fixation upon the role of the being in itself the knower the individual consciousness The author suggests as an alternative approach replacing Modern reason with a razon vital or an organismic approach initially present in the writings of Jose Ortega y Gasset and Kurt Goldstein but also to some degree in the works of a few later philosophers and psychologists of the twentieth century To adopt the interactions of living beings and their environments as one's starting point is what the author calls following the usage of J J Gibson an ecological approach Order in the Twilight Bernhard Waldenfels,1996 Waldenfels philosophy Ruhr U Bochum Germany explores the problem of the nature of order after the loss of the idea of a universal or fundamental order He combines phenomenological methodology with recent work on the theory of order normativity dialogue structuralism and Gestalt theory His attitude is more optimistic than deconstructionism and many other modern approaches Originally published as Ordnung in Zwilicht by Suhrkamp Verlag Frankfurt am Main in 1987 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
