Phenomenology In Modern African Studies:

Phenomenology in Modern African Studies Sunday Ogbonna Anozie,1982 Structural Models and African Poetics Sunday O. Anozie, 2016-08-19 In this pioneering work first published in 1981 Sunday O Anozie examines the relevance of structuralism and semiology to literary criticism in general and to African poetics in particular Behind the growing body of African literature lies an immense reservoir of oral tradition for which the proper tools of analysis and interpretation have yet to be found This book represents the first comprehensive full scale exposition analysis and critique of structuralism by a non Western and non European scholar From an African viewpoint it examines the roles to be played by structuralism and post structuralism in the development of the general principles governing poetics and literary creativity in Africa This title will be of interest to students of literature and literary theory Afrika, Literatur-Zeitschriften Ellen Rüggeberg, Stadt- und Universitätsbibliothek Frankfurt am Main, 1985 African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa's literature is different from West Africa's which is quite different from South Africa's which has different influences on it than North Africa's Africa's literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources Accessed by Handbook of Research on Theoretical Perspectives on Indigenous Knowledge subject author and title indexes Systems in Developing Countries Ngulube, Patrick, 2016-09-12 There has been a growth in the use acceptance and popularity of indigenous knowledge High rates of poverty and a widening economic divide is threatening the accessibility to western scientific knowledge in the developing world where many indigenous people live Consequently indigenous knowledge has become a potential source for sustainable development in the developing world. The Handbook of Research on Theoretical Perspectives on Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Developing Countries presents interdisciplinary research on knowledge management sharing and transfer among indigenous communities Providing a unique perspective on alternative knowledge systems this publication is a critical resource for sociologists anthropologists researchers and graduate level students in a variety of fields Africana Journal ,1982 Borana Folktales Sahlu Kidane, 2002 The Borana people of southern Ethiopia have a rich and complex oral literature However what is not so well known beyond the Oromo speaking Borana and the few outsiders who have studied it is the literature itself With the adoption of orthography for the language in recent decades scholars like Kidane have turned their attention to the documentation and preservation of the orally transmitted literature which is the vehicle for the history and values of the people This folkloric collection and the accompanying contextual material provide insights to the cultural and social patterns of Borana life whilst the stories make their contribution to the body of world literature where they will find echoes in many places Arranged in three sections the study first gives a detailed analysis of the role function and breadth of the literature then significant examples of stories in translation and finally some of the stories in their native Oromo Towards a Theory of an African Development Communication Mode Brian Michael Coyle, 1990 Education and Politics in Tropical Africa Victor Chikezie ZAA ,1987 The Palgrave Handbook of African Social Ethics Nimi Wariboko, Toyin Falola, 2020-03-30 This Uchendu.1977 Handbook provides a robust collection of vibrant discourses on African social ethics and ethical practices It focuses on how the ethical thoughts of Africans are forged within the context of everyday life and how in turn ethical and philosophical thoughts inform day to day living The essays frame ethics as a historical phenomenon best examined as a historical movement the dynamic ethos of a people rather than as a theoretical construct It thereby offers a bold incisive and fresh interpretation of Africa's ethical life and thought Glasses Brilliant Jason Benjamin Ambrosiano, 2002 of African Studies ,1990 Black African Literature in English, 1982-1986 Bernth Lindfors, 1989 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources International African Bibliography, 1983 Phenomenological The Kaiser Index to Black Resources, 1948-1986: D-H, 1992 The Schomburg Center Guide to Black Inquiry ,1985 Literature Roger M. Valade, 1996 Cont On a general topic such as Discrimination a brief treatment is followed by a discussion of black authors who have written scholarly and popular works on discrimination and how the topic is reflected in creative works Literary terms and genres are defined and explained in the context of black literature Additional features include a chronology of events in black history and black literary history and an essay on the Schomburg Center An index lists titles names and subjects covered in the text Booklist The Conch ,1981 Materijali za istorijata na Makedonija, 1982
