museums from within by exploring critical issues and contemporary movements facing museums and our society transparency and openness labor and equity belonging and coalition building risk taking and risk aversion and sustainability and empathy Advocating for change rather than death to museums Museums in Motion demonstrates the very premise that museums have been in motion all along as they have shifted from their rather simple form of a treasury storehouse and tomb to something much more complex by deeply considering where museums have come from where they are today and where they are going Entirely new to this edition Section III Museum Aspirations features five new chapters each centered around topics rather than a museum type or museum function Each topic is meant to be a micro narrative and springboard for a conversation about museums today and their sustainability in the future The chapters examine museums from the inside museum workers and their voices especially as well as power held by people and institutions and DEIA without using those individual words as chapter headings On their own or in conjunction with the chapters in the previous sections of this book these chapters serve as vignettes that can help readers to understand where how and why we need to apply critical lenses to institutions and articulate how doing so helps us to understand this historical moment and ultimately how we can realize resiliency and sustainability for museums and those who make their existence possible Philip Guston Philip Guston,
