Power And Politics In Africa:

POWER AND POLITICS IN AFRICA Henry L. Bretton, 1976 Land, Law and Politics in Africa Jan Abbink, Jon Abbink, Mirjam de Bruijn, 2011-11-11 This book offers a series of new studies on the dynamics of political and legal culture as well as of conflict management in contemporary Africa taking inspiration from and honoring the scholarly contributions and impact of Prof Gerti Hesseling 1946 2009 in African Studies Business, Politics, and the State in Africa Doctor Tim Kelsall, 2013-01-10 In recent years Africa appears to have turned a corner economically It is posting increased growth rates and is no longer the world's slowest growing region Commentators are beginning to ask whether emerging from Africa is a new generation of lion economies to challenge the East Asian tigers This book goes behind the headlines to examine the conditions necessary not just for growth in Africa but for a wider business and economic transformation Contrary to neoliberal economics it argues that governments can play an important role in this through selective interventions to correct market failures and controversially that neo patrimonial governance need not be an obstacle to improved business and economic conditions Drawing on a variety of timely case studies including Rwanda Ethiopia Tanzania and Ghana this provocative book provides a radical new theory of the political and institutional conditions required for pro poor growth in Africa Democracy and Political Governance in South Africa Isioma Ile, Omololu Fagbadebo, 2022-11-02 This book presents a holistic perspective and analysis of democratic practice processes and governance in South Africa It examines the development in the South African governing system and its response to the challenges of the crisis of governance under the influence of the African Peer Review Mechanism APRM While doing so the book's central objective is to examine the progress of the South African government in strengthening democracy and political governance Each of the contributions follows a similar structure and addresses the following thematic issues 1 Assessment of the implementation of the core APRM related programs 2 Identification of areas of excellence and prognosis for further improvement 3 Identification of the weak areas of each and how to make the future implementation better 4 Identification areas to improve democracy and political governance A self assessment strategy initiated by the African Union AU in 2002 and adopted in 2003 the APRM is a voluntary mechanism adopted by countries in the African continent to improve governance in general As a specialized AU agency APRM monitors the peer review activities of each African country It serves as a tool for sharing experiences reinforcing best practices identifying deficiencies and assessing capacity building needs to foster policies standards and practices that lead to political stability high economic growth sustainable development and accelerated sub regional and continental economic integration This book will be useful for and appeal to scholars and researchers in political science public administration and the social sciences in general as well as policy makers interested in a better understanding of democratic practice and processes governance public policy and the African Peer Review Mechanism Power, Politics, and the African Condition Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 2004 Power Politics and the African Condition is the third volume of The Collected Essays of Ali A Mazrui which will provide readers with a broad spectrum of Ali A Mazrui's scholarly writings. The third volume is centered on issues of power and politics at the nexus of Africa's domestic affairs and its international concepts about the disequilibrium of power in the international system and the problems that Africa has confronted globally because of it. Mazrui focuses the reader's attention on the impact that the colonial legacy and African tradition had on state formation, leadership, Africa's political economy, violence and conflict resolution while presenting some of his most interesting and even controversial ideas for building Pax Africana. Spanning nearly forty years, Mazrui's essays are classic and contemporary statements on the diagnosis and treatment of what he called The African Condition.

Africa and Navigating the Current Global Crisis Emmanuel D. Babatunde, Kelebogile T. Setiloane, 2025-07-21 Dealing with real world issues that impact people at all levels, this powerful interdisciplinary collection makes important connections between ideas and concepts across different disciplines, providing readers with a comprehensive overview of how Africa and its Diaspora have been navigating the current global crisis.

Power and Politics in Africa, 1992 Power Politics in Africa Olusola Ogunnubi, Samuel Oyewole, 2020-11-09 This collection of essays examines the subject of power politics in Africa, paying special attention to the interests of African regional powers as well as their capabilities and strategies in the international arena. It provides a theoretical bridge between concerns for militarised national interest, perpetual distrust and insecurity, struggles for power and hegemony in power politics, and the spirit of pan-African solidarity, brotherhood, consensus, cooperation and integration. It is on these bases that this volume offers rich empirical insight into leading regional powers in Africa, with special attention given to Nigeria and South Africa. It serves to contribute African perspectives to the field of International Relations, particularly regarding power politics, which is important in terms of Africanising the narratives of a subject matter that is largely considered as Eurocentric in African and other non-Western societies.

The Theory and Practice of African Politics Christian P. Potholm, 1979 Climate Change and Socio-political Violence in Sub-Saharan Africa in the Anthropocene Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala, Norman Chivasa, 2024-05-04 This book explores the theoretical contribution of peace ecology to the understanding and practice of environmental and conventional peacebuilding. It integrates environmental questions and factors that drive socio-political violence and climate change-induced violence in Sub-Saharan Africa in the Anthropocene. It demonstrates how international peace and global security are no longer solely grounded in conventional peacebuilding that has evolved from liberal to democratic peace theories but rather in the complex critical and synergic relations between peace studies and environmental studies. It provides a pluridisciplinary body of knowledge that emphasises the need for food security, social climate, social good, social capital and sustainable development at the age of climate change and climate wars. It underscores the potential of peace ecology to reduce the Earth systems' vulnerability to mitigate anthropogenic global warming's consequences on humanity, the ecosystem and biodiversity. It yields various models of peacebuilding, conflict-sensitive and climate-sensitive adaptation strategies to enhance the African Region's security and stability Finally this volume argues that planetary boundaries framework remains the safer space within which human and sustainable development can be pursued and attained and future generations to thrive A comprehensive and international response to socio political violence and climate change induced violence should take into account the vulnerability of individual countries regions and the global world in order to achieve the dreams of a better future that makes this book a cutting edge scholarly work

Ethnicity and Politics in Africa Crawford Young,2002

Trappings of Power Z. Allan Ntata,2012 Why is it that by his death having solved the country s hunger problems and set an example for Africa on how to deal with foreign donors and international aid organisations such as the IMF and the World Bank Mutharika was regarded as a pariah both in Malawi and internationally Mutharika had overseen the expansion of the transport infrastructure presided as Chairman of the African Union and helped Malawi achieve rapid GDP growth How is it that he also left Malawi with serious economic problems particularly relating to nonexistent foreign exchange reserves and the inability of the country to import fuel Why is it that that when he died he had become the most hated man in Malawi at least aside from his staunch party followers This book analyses the presidency of Bingu wa Mutharika from the inside his love hate relationship with foreign donors and international aid agencies and his political successes and failures to show how power and political success in Africa is a trap that ensnares African leaders to easily forget their mission to serve the people The role of patronage and culture and the tendency of advisors in contributing to their leaders feelings of infallibility is also highlighted The book uncovers lessons on the inner dynamics of power and politics in Africa that will be enlightening to all interested in African politics specifically and third world political development in general
