Power Elites And State Building:

Power Elites and State Building Wolfgang Reinhard, 1996 The Origins of the Modern State in Europe series arises from an important international research programme sponsored by the European Science Foundation The aim of the series which comprises seven volumes is to bring together specialists from different countries who reinterpret from a comparative European perspective different aspects of the formation of the state over the long period from the beginning of the thirteenth to the end of the eighteenth century One of the main achievements of the research programme has been to overcome the long established historiographical tendency to regard states mainly from the viewpoint of their twentieth century borders The modern European state defined by a continuous territory with a distinct borderline and complete external sovereignty by the monopoly of every kind of legitimate use of force and by a homogeneous mass of subjects each of whom has the same rights and duties is the outcome of a thousand years of shifting political power and developing notions of the state This major study sets out to examine the processes of state formation and the creation of power elites A team of leading European historians explores the dominant institutions and ideologies of the past and their role in the creation of the contemporary nation state Power Elites and State Building, 1996 Die Anthropologie von Macht und Glauben Hans Joas, 2008

Die evangelischen Klosterschulen des Fürstentums Braunschweig-Wolfenbüttel 1568-1613 Maike Gauger-Lange, 2017-12-11 Mit Einführung der Reformation 1568 wurden im Fürstentum Braunschweig Wolfenbüttel evangelische Klosterschulen eröffnet Ihnen wurde aufgetragen begabte Jungen aufwarten in Kirchen und weltlichen Diensten vorzubereiten Mittels einer vergleichenden Perspektive werden diese Einrichtungen erstmals umfassend analysiert Die Untersuchung widmet sich der Administration auf landesherrlicher Ebene sowie vor Ort durch lokale und zentrale Amtsträger Zudem werden die Situation der Lehrer und Stipendiaten in den Klosterschulen sowie die Lehrinhalte und Unterrichtsgestaltung betrachtet Aufbauend auf der Prosopografie beruht die kollektivbiografische Auswertung der Lehrer und Stipendiaten inwiefern die Einrichtungen ihren Auftrag erfüllten und zur Bildungselite des Fürstentums beitrugen In 1568 with the introduction of the Reformation Protestant monastery schools opened in the Principality of Braunschweig Wolfenbüttel They should prepare talented boys for church and secular ministry By means of a comparative perspective these schools are being comprehensively analysed for the first time The investigation focuses the administration by local and central officials at sovereign level and on site In addition the situation of the teachers and scholars in the monastery schools as well as the teaching contents and the formation of the lessons are considered Based on the prosopography the collective biographical evaluation of the teachers and scholars examines in which way these schools fulfilled their mission and contributed to the educated elite of the Principality Im Dienst der Krone Heiko Droste, 2006 Royal and Elite Households in Medieval and Early Modern Europe, 2018-03-12 In this volume the authors bring fresh approaches to the subject of royal and noble households in medieval and early modern Europe The essays focus on the people of the highest social rank the nuclear and extended royal family their household attendants noblemen and noblewomen as courtiers and physicians Themes include financial and administrative management itinerant households the household of an imprisoned noblewoman blended households and cultural influence The essays are grounded in sources such as records of court ceremonial economic records letters legal records wills and inventories The authors employ a variety of methods including prosopography economic history visual analysis network analysis and gift exchange and the collection is engaged with current political sociological anthropological gender and feminist theories The Ottomans and Eastern Europe Michal Wasiucionek, 2019-06-27 In the seventeenth century previously peaceful relations between the Ottoman Empire and the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth deteriorated into a series of military confrontations over the principalities of Moldavia and Wallachia Although scholars have generally interpreted this rivalry in terms of conflicting geopolitical interests this state centred approach ignores one of the most important developments of the period the devolution of power away from rulers and formal institutions towards political factions Drawing on Ottoman Polish and Romanian sources The Ottomans and Eastern Europe explores the complex interplay between regional politics and the rise of factionalism focusing on cross border patronage between Ottoman Polish Lithuanian and Moldavian elites By approaching the history of the region from a factional rather than state centred perspective this book investigates an alternative geography of power defined by personal interactions that straddled religious political and social boundaries between the elites Wasiucionek reveals the way in which these interactions not only shaped the Ottoman Polish rivalry over Moldavia but also influenced political culture throughout the region Published in Association with the British Institute at Ankara No Part of the Mother Country, but Distinct Dominions Dominik Nagl, 2013 Elite and state-building in imperial Brazil José Murilo de Carvalho, 1974 A Comparative Study of Thirty City-state Cultures Mogens Herman Hansen, 2000 Representations of Power in Medieval Germany 800-1500 Björn K. U. Weiler, Simon MacLean, 2006 This book brings together a group of leading experts on the political history of Germany and the medieval empire from the Carolingian period to the end of the Middle Ages Its purpose is to introduce and analyse key concepts in the study of medieval political culture The representation of power by means of texts buildings and images is a theme which has long interested historians However recent debates and methodological insights have fundamentally altered the way this subject is perceived opening it up to perspectives unnoticed by its pioneers in the middle of the twentieth century By taking account of these debates and insights this volume explores a series of fundamental questions How was power defined in a medieval context How was it claimed legitimized and disputed What were the moral parameters against which its exercise was judged How did different spheres of political power interact What roles were played by texts images and rituals in the maintenance of and challenges to the political order The contributors bring varied and original approaches to these and other questions illuminating the complex power relationships which determined the changing political history of medieval Germany Scholars of Early Modern Studies, 1997 Medizin,

Gesellschaft, und Geschichte, 1992 Information Flows Leos Mu ller, Jari Ojala, 2007 Business information is an important subject in contemporary social and economic historical studies One reason is the revolution in information technology of the recent decades Another reason is the he impact of neo institutional economics which singled out information costs as an important factor in economic performance However this attention has primarily been paid to contemporary or recent use of business information The present book looks at the role of business information from a long time perspective 1350 2000 with the aim not least of pointing out the continuity and the evolutionary character of the changing use of information The chapters of this book however not only cover a long period and a varied subject matter They also represent new and fresh analytical perspectives on the issue of business information in addition to providing us with original historical research This book will attract any scholar interested in information flows from the mid fourteenth century to the present day Actes Anders Jølstad, Marianne Lunde, 2000 Forging the Military-industrial Complex Gregory Hooks, 1991 Comportements Sociaux Et Stratégies Familiales Dans Les Balkans (XVIe-XXe Siècles) Ionela Băluță, 2008
